British Enter Valenciennes.

OTHER IMPORTANT GAINS MADE.

Germany's Note Looked Upon With Deep Suspicion---"A Clumsy Trap" Says Senator Henry Cabot Lodge---Unconditional Surrender Demanded by French Press.

WAR REVIEW.
The fall of Valenciennes to Field Marshal Haig's forces is imminent.
Despite desperate resistance of the Germans the British have entered the city on the west side to the north they have made a deep thrust into the great Ralsmon forest, and are moving in the direction of Conde, near the single of the Scheldt. Valenciennes had been an uninterrupted French possession from 1877 until the onset of the Germans early in the present war led them many miles into France. It is now about to be added to the rapidly growing list of towns, the reclamation of which has brought relief to the French people. Although the progress of the Allied forces in Belgium and France and Flanders has slowed up somewhat in the face of the stiffening of the line of outposts aiding the retreat of the German army, appreciable gains have been made, some of them of much importance. Hollain and Briellies on the Scheldt, Housin and Bruilles on the Sambre, and Tournai, are now in the hands of the enemy who are withdrawing towards the Scheldt.
There has been sharp fighting for the crossings of this waterway. At Pont-a-Chin the Germans are battling hard to keep the Allies from outflanking Tournai on the south. Beside the Scheldt the Germans are massed in strength. Their machine guns on the east bank are active and are receiving the support of artillery and French mortars. In the northern battle area the Belgians have reached the Lys Canal along their entire front and have captured a bridgehead with numbers of the enemy west of Meer-sbroef. An item of great interest appears in the latest announcement by the French war office concerning operations along the Aisne. It says the Czecho-Slovaks with us retook the village of Terron.

BRITISH IN VALENCIENNES.
LONDON, Oct. 22.
British troops have entered the suburbs of Valenciennes, Field Marshal Haig reported from headquarters tonight.

RELIGIANS WILL CELEBRATE.
WASHINGTON, D.C., Oct. 22.
The deliverance of half of Belgium from the Germans will be celebrated at Havre on Oct. 26 and 27, the anniversary of the first battle of the Yser, under the auspices of the Belgian Government. An official despatch to the Belgian Legation to-day says Belgium refugees at Havre and in the surrounding territory would be present to give expressions to their great joy over the liberation of the sea coast cities.

COLD WAVE PREDICTED.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.
An early taste of winter is about to be given the country from the coast to coast. A special bulletin from the Weather Bureau to-day says there will be a decided change to cooler within 36 hours in the plains States and the Eastern Rocky Mountain region, extending by Thursday to the Mississippi and Lower Ohio valleys and the west Gulf States, by Thursday night or Friday to the middle Atlantic, New England, South Atlantic and East Gulf States.

SELLING ENEMY STOCK.
NEW YORK, Oct. 22.
Enemy owned stock in the Great American Insurance Companies, formerly the German American Insurance Company, was sold by the Allied Property Custodian to-day for $27, 250. A law firm acting for the Curtiss bid in the stock, which is less than ten per cent. of the Company's capitalization.

A FEW INSTANCES.
LONDON, Oct. 22.
With reference to the paragraph on the German note denying that the German navy in sinking ships ever purposely destroyed lifeboats with their passengers, it is pointed out in Government circles that many cases could be quoted in reply to this denial. The recent cases are the Llandovery Castle, the Canadian Hospital ship Ly-diana, sunk off the north coast of Spain on July 16.

TURNING DOWN HIS FRIENDS.
PARIS, Oct. 22.
(Havas.)—German and Austro-Hungarian Consuls received a sharp rebuff from M. Tchitcherin, the Bolshevik Foreign Minister recently, according to advices from Archangel.
The Consuls protested against the inhumane treatment of political adversaries by the Bolsheviks.

REGARDED AS MERE ARGUMENT.
LONDON, Oct. 22.
The German reply to President Wilson is regarded as not a business but mere argument and propaganda.

THE VATICAN'S APPEAL.
ROME, Oct. 22.
An appeal was made to Prince Macmillan, the German Imperial Chancellor, by the Holy See asking that the Germans refrain from devastating and ing assurances that categorically instructions have been issued by the German General Staff that localities should be preserved and respected in every way possible. Later the Papal Nuncio at Munich was informed that the German retreat in Belgium. Baron Von Der Lancken, the Civil Governor of Brussels, went with the commission.

WITH THE AIRME.
LONDON, Oct. 22.
An official statement on the operations of the Independent Air Force issued to-night says two of our squadrons attacked the barracks and railways at Metz, Monday. Another squadron set out to attack the factories in Rhine towns, but the formation was split up by the dense fog. Seven machines have not up to the present been located. Monday night we dropped heavy bombs on the station at Meisleres.

GERMANY'S NEW WAR LOAN.
AMSTERDAM, Oct. 22.
A new war credit of 15,000,000,000 marks will be submitted to the German Reichstag in November, according to the Munich correspondent of the Rhenish Westphalian Gazette of Essen.

FRENCH OPINION.
PARIS, Oct. 22.
The German reply to President Wilson excited much comment in the lo-by of the Chamber of Deputies this evening. It was considered on every side as denoting that a spirit of depression and demoralization pervades Germany. Concerning the reference to the conditions of evacuation and armistice the note is regarded to be wilfully equivocal, crafty and obscure.
Parliamentarians are unanimous in the belief that the so-called constitutional reform in Germany affords no guarantee that the reforms will be lasting or efficacious. The newspapers express the opinion that the note is a moral abdication of the German empire. They say that Germany feels the need of peace and is giving way, but that the Government would like to attain peace without accepting just and necessary sacrifices, and declare that an armistice cannot be considered unless it gives the Allies at once exactly the same guarantee as a complete victory.

COMMANDERS DECORATED.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.
President Wilson, as commander-in-chief of the United States army, today awarded the Distinguished Service Medal to Marshals Foch, Joffre and Haig, and to Generals Petain, Diaz, Ghilian and Pershing.

NO DECISION TILL TO-DAY.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.
Indications were that no announcement of a decision by the President could be expected before to-morrow.
Secretary Lansing was with him until near midnight last night discussing the wireless version, but there now must be further conferences, and it is assumed there will be an exchange with the Allied capitals.

FRENCH TAKE MORE TOWNS.
PARIS, Oct. 22.
French troops have captured Chalsany and Grand-Lup, north of Laon according to the War Office announcement to-night. The Czecho-Slovak troops fighting with the French recaptured the village of Terron which had temporarily fallen into the hands of the enemy.

FRENCH PRESS ON GERMAN NOTE.
PARIS, Oct. 22.
In discussing the German reply to President Wilson, the Temps says:
"Now more than ever the decision must be with the military and naval chiefs of our alliance. To make the French public believe that Germany wishes to insinuate that peace is coming along the pathway of least effort is an outrage to truth and an ill-service to the country. There is only one way to spare French blood and that is to refuse the enemy until he capitulates. A respite in the fighting would give Ludendorff time in which to recover." The Temps reviews the German note and points out that it contains no word of apology for crimes committed. The note, it says, is composed of two parts. One part, which is short, carries the need of the General Staff for a respite from fighting. The other, which is verbose, answers the need of the German Government for sustaining hope in Germany. In regard to the German demand that arrangements for an armistice should be according to the Powers on both sides of the field, the Temps wonders what General Hoffman would have said about that before the Brest-Litovsk negotiations. What is the good, it asks, of telling us the German regime has been radically transformed, when the Reichstag has not deliberated on any of the three replies to President Wilson. To say it is dark at midday deceives nobody.

Tagwacht says that everybody is now convinced the Allies will not accord Germany a cheap peace, but if the glory and power of Imperial Germany is the price, the German people are ready to pay.

Germany, the German censorship apparently is preparing public opinion

WHAT HE THOUGHT IN 1915.
LONDON, Oct. 22.
It is recalled by the Times' correspondent, at Berne, that Mathias Erzberger, leader of the German Centris-tists, and a member of the Government formed to convince the outside world of the peace-loving character of this Government, in a newspaper article written in February 1915, expressed sentiments quite the contrary to those he is now supposed to entertain. He wrote: "The greatest ruthlessness in reality the greatest humanity. If it should be possible to destroy the whole of London, that would be more humane than to allow one of our fellow countrymen to bleed to death on the battlefield, because such a radical cure would lead most speedily to peace. England has taken from us more than 400 merchant ships. The answer to this should be that for every German merchantman and English town or village will be destroyed by our airmen." The German newspapers are laying great stress on the supposed attitude of Herr Erzberger on the peace question. They refer to length to his plan for a Last DUE of Nations.

additional casualties in the Canadian Volunteer Reserve forces serving with the British navy included in the list as having died in hospital is leading
