

(Under the distinguished patronage of His Excellency the Governor and His Grace the Archbishop.)

STAND BACK, OR DIE!

Ransom—picturesque villains—silk-clad cavaliers—the robber's cave in the gloaming—mystery, romance, thrills!

How it rings back the curtain hiding younger days, when the greatest heroes were those of the story-book. Haven't you just the shimmer of a wish to wander back to those happier days—to feel all the boy and girl in you leap to the pulsing throb of Romance!

To-night you may see our own town girls in Prof. Hutton's Master Scenic.

To-Night—Prince and Pedlar; or, Rhyme of Ardenlea--To-Night

Watch amateur talent unfold to you with the ingenueness of youth as intense a plot as ever fired hot-headed boyhood—for it is youth acting youthful scenes.

Into the colored spot-light—to the rhythm of exotic music—gorgeously clothed in rustling silks—characters revivify again those lost ghosts of other days! Come! Boyhood calls.
