Mysterious Death.
San Francisco, Oct. 12.—Abram H.
Kohn, son of the late Henry A. Kohn, a millionaire banker and merchant of Chicago, has just died here under alleged mysterious circumstances. Kohn (who was 32 years old) arrived here from the east last Monday with a young woman who registered with him as his wife. Thursday evening he was taken to a sanitarium suffering from nervous prostration, the result of an attempt to abstain from the use of morphine, to which it is said he was addicted. At midnight he was found dead in bed beside his wife. In an interview the widow said she had been secretly married to Kohn, at Beulah, Wis., on May 15 last, that her maiden name was Edith Webb, and that her home was in Kentucky.
The coroner will investigate.

LONDON AND DISTRICT

—Mr. I. Bond, of Elmwood avenue, has been called to Montreal owing to the sudden death of his father.

—Mr. Leonard Stoddart, of this city, has purchased from Mr. Charles Elliott, of Craig street, Mr. Elliott's residence.

CALL TO MONTREAL HAS BEEN ACCEPTED BY DR. JOHNSTON

Announcement Made to St. Andrew's Congregation—Askin Street Anniversary.

Rev. Dr. Johnston, for nearly nine years pastor of St. Andrew's Church, in this city, has decided to leave London.

The reverend gentleman made the announcement in the church last night that he had decided to accept the call of the American Presbyterian Church, Montreal, subject to the acceptance by the London Presbytery of his resignation of his present charge.

In giving his reasons for his decision to leave London, Dr. Johnston said that if he were thinking of himself alone, he would most assuredly never leave London. He had enjoyed every comfort and every help that a pastor could enjoy in London, but there were other things to be considered.

There was plenty of work to be done in London yet, though there had been very much done in the past, but he felt that in Montreal there was a harder kind of work to do, a work which he felt called upon to attempt, and by God's grace he would attempt it.

"I will confess to you that for the past year or two I have been restless and uneasy," he said, "feeling that I have been enjoying too much the comforts of these delightful surroundings and content to do work that, while important, I have found possible of accomplishment with comparative ease, while my brethren are facing the hardest problems of the age in the great cities. This invitation affording possibilities of the widest kind has come to me, and I simply cannot refuse it."

Dr. Johnston then heartily thanked the congregation for their kind treatment of him through all the years he had served them, and in conclusion he said he trusted they would make allowance for his shortcomings, which were very great, as he had made allowance for their shortcomings, which were —Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Sayer and family left London yesterday for a visit to —The Peterboro Times says: Miss Marguerite C. Quigley passed through Peterboro today on her way to London, where she will resume her duties on the nursing staff of St. Joseph's Hospital. Miss Quigley has been at home for some time owing to sickness in the family. Miss Quigley is a niece of Archbishop Quigley, of Chicago, and a grand-daughter of the late H. Woldorf Colbrenski, of Adena, Russia, a Russian officer who won fame in the Crimean war, and was decorated by the Czar for his bravery.

SHOT THE COLT.

A valuable colt belonging to Mr.

known teamster, was shot and killed in Frank's pasture, south of the city, by some unknown person on Saturday last. The county detectives are work-Butty, 211 Bathurst street. The deceased was 52 years of age, and had resided here for over 14 years. He was survived by a widow, one son, George, and two daughters.

ASKIN STREET ANNIVERSARY.

Yesterday Askin Street Methodist Sunday school celebrated its anniversary, and large congregations filled the auditorium for the services. The scholars took a prominent part in the day's proceedings, joining heartily in the singing of the hymns, and occasionally reciting verses. The day was a spirit of accord and hearty good will toward the Sunday school, the teachers and toward each other. In the morning, when Dr. Johnston's resignation will be considered, and it is hardly likely that the reverend gentleman will call to Montreal will be opposed.

YESTERDAY'S SERVICE.

At both services Rev. Mr. Marshall, of Ingersoll, was the preacher, being in the afternoon assisted by Rev. R.
D. Hamilton, of the Wellington Street Methodist Church. Rev. Mr. Marshall spoke to the scholars in a straightforward way, pointing out to them the duties and responsibilities of life, and the good that was sure to result from a life of purity and righteousness.

Rev. Mr. Hamilton also spoke along the same lines, best addresses being listened to with marked attention by the large attendance.

In the evening Rev. Mr. Marshall preached an eloquent sermon to a very large congregation, the evening services bringing the day's proceedings to a close.

THE REAL GABRIEL TWO

Cowboy Brothers Were in "The Montana Outlaw."

"Bill" Tells How He Spells His Name and Other Things.

With "A Montana Outlaw" company, which showed to fair audiences at the Grand Saturday afternoon and evening, are two cowboys who have smelt powder burnt in battle upon several occasions, and who are the real thing—the genuine article of the wild and woolly west. Their names are William and Bart Gabriel, and when asked how he spelled his name, "Bill," as he is best known, replied: "Gabriel."
"The same as the archangel's."

The Gabriels were born in Crow Creek, Idaho, about 30 years ago, and have spent their lives in the west.
Their father was a cowboy before them, and they tell with pride that in their younger days their "dad" went to "the city" twice a year for provisions, "the city" being about 300 miles from the old cowboy's cabin.

The younger Gabriels lived on the plains till they were about twenty years of age, taking part in the wars between the cattlemen and rustlers in the Black Hills, and had white men to kill off the rustlers at $50 a head.
