The Beautiful Actress Engaged to Wealthy Canadian Capitalist. Anna Fitzhugh, one of the original beau-ties of the "Wizard of Oz" company, is to be married. Her fiancee is John J.

The mother of the actress, Mrs. M. E.

nex, admitted with some reluctance that her daughter is to become the bride of the rich young Canadian. Almost everybody that ever saw "The Wizard of Oz" has seen Miss Fitzhugh. She was one of the few really good Dorothys (the girl that is blown from Land of Oz), that the piece has seen. Besides that, she is a rare type of Irish beauty, having deep blue eyes and jet black hair. Her real name is Anna Powell, and one of her three sisters, Ruby Powell, was a member of the or sextet in "Florodora." The third the original s Marie Powell, and the fourth Mrs. R. F. Kellogg, of 2045 Clarendon avenue. Miss Fitzhugh first met the to marry when she was touring Canadalast year with "The Baroness Fiddlesticks," a musical comedy, which was written by a California millionaire, and backed by E. R. Thomas, the turfman. The bride-to-be is only in her teens

It is easy to smile at trouble-when She first went upon the stage when she was 16 years old. That was when she was a member of the chorus in "The Sultan of Sulu" at the Studebacker Theater. She was rapidly promoted by Henry W. Savage, and when there was a chance to place her in "The Wizard of Oz" the Hamlins and Julian Mitchell se and placed her in the front rank.
