

FRANCE FACES AN OPEN REVOLT

Peasants Armed to Resist the Taking of Church Inventories.

London, March 26.—There can no longer be any doubt that the resistance to the taking of the church inventories in France is fast developing into open revolt. What were spectacular demonstrations in Paris and southern France, have turned into nothing short of a rebellion in the Haute Loire and Brittany. There the peasants take the interference with what is more sacred to them far more seriously than the Parisians or the men tainted by the spirit of Paris. According to latest reports, the matter is helping the opposition, and some of those irrespressible who were restrained by the Pope's encyclical have broken away again and are counselling open resistance.

The correspondent of the Temps says that the rioting has had its reflex in the Vatican. Those who are most likely to know, he writes, agree that the attitude of the Vatican is not justified by facts. A change at all events has been made. The Vatican, he says, little knowing that the active resisters were not the majority of French Roman Catholics, has listened to the irreconcilable emissaries who have hastened to Rome to report on the riots. The emissaries, it is said, have found it easy to persuade the Pope that resistance was possible and that the time was come to act against the republic. This is serious news, if true, but there is good reason to believe that the Pope will not interfere in any way until after the general elections, which are expected to take place in the fall.

A great effort is to be made to shake the Radical-Socialist majority at the elections, and in hopes of success many of the fighting wing of the Right are advising submission under protest. If the elections are unfavorable to the Roman Catholics, however, the situation may easily become more serious.

The Abbe Janvier, one of the greatest preachers in the French Roman Catholic Church, referred to the inventory riots at Notre Dame. He was giving the first of a series of talks on virtue, and Cardinal Richard, Archbishop of Paris, and the Bishops of Soissons and Orlans were present. In a remarkable passage Abbe Janvier said: "No, we are not with those who proclaim the degrading doctrine that the law is the law—no; the law should not always be respected; but there are times when it is our most sacred duty to rebel against it." The sermon was listened to by two thousand people.

The peasants of the district of Saumur in the Haute Loire are "like any border tribe. Men, women, and even children, are armed with farm implements, and in some cases with guns; the churches are all closed except to the local priest and his flock. In many cases the village is defended with outworks and bastions made of logs and snow. Here and there preparations have been made to fall upon the invaders in the road, and it is even said that some roads are being mined.

German Singer Gone.

Waterloo, March 25.—Mr. Heinrich Schmeier, one of Waterloo's oldest citizens, passed away at the hospital at 1 o'clock today at the advanced age of 84 years.

He also devoted much time to music. His great work for German music and music-loving Germans in Canada, as well as in the United States. At the time of his death he was an honorary member of most of the German singing societies in the Canadian Sengbund.

HADLEY WINS OVER STANDARD OIL

Compels H. H. Rogers to Admit Ownership of Missouri Companies.

New York, March 25.—The Standard Oil trust, through its active manager, Henry H. Rogers, capitulated yesterday to Attorney-General Hadley, of Missouri, after a long fight, and consented to answer questions about the trust's ownership of the stock of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, the Waters-Pierce Oil Company of St. Louis, and the Republic Oil Company of New York.

Mr. Rogers admitted in a long and carefully worded answer which was prepared by the lawyers for the respondents, that the majority of the stock of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, and all of the stocks of the Republic Oil Company of New Jersey. He admitted also that all the shares of stock of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company standing in the name of M. M. Van Beuren, son-in-law of John D. Archbold, of the trust, are held for the Standard Oil Company.

Mr. Hadley has been trying to prove for months that the trust not only controlled these three companies, but that they had been violating for years the anti-trust law of Missouri in entering into a monopolistic agreement by which the state was divided into territories for the purpose of regulating and controlling trade and for preventing competition.

The Standard Oil lawyers put up a strong fight and it was by their advice that Mr. Rogers and other corporation officials, both here and in Missouri, refused to answer questions about stock ownership or, in fact, about any of the inside workings of the business of the trust.

Now that the stock control has been admitted it is Mr. Hadley's purpose to show that the affairs of the companies who are respondents in the action are managed from No. 26 Broadway. If he succeeds in this he feels that his case will be complete, and that the Standard Oil trust will be put out of business in Missouri.

He gave notice at the close of the hearing that he had directed the Standard Oil officials to produce certain books containing letters and reports that were sent to No. 26 Broadway from the offices of the respondent companies in Missouri. These are the papers that he is relying on mainly to prove that the affairs of the three corporations were directed from the headquarters of the trust in this city.

"Suppose they refuse to produce these documents?" Mr. Hadley was asked.

The attorney-general smiled. "It happens," said he, "that I have copies of these reports and other correspondence. If the Standard Oil officials refuse to produce the originals that will leave the way clear for me to introduce the copies in evidence. In the absence of the originals they must be received."

TRAIN KILLS SEVEN

Old Farmer, With Six Members of His Family, Hurled to Death.

Sunbury, Pa., March 25.—A fast express on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, late yesterday afternoon, struck a wagon containing a family of seven people, killing six of them instantly and so badly injured the seventh, a child, that she died before reaching a hospital.

DYNAMITERS CONFESS

New York Ironworkers Admit Trying to Destroy Building.

New York, March 25.—Charles Moran, a member of the Bridgemans and Housepainters' Union, who was arrested several weeks ago with two other ironworkers, charged with attempting to dynamite the Bliss building, being erected in East Twenty-third street by Post & McCord, today made a complete confession, according to Assistant District Attorney Train. Moran, who is charged with conspiring to place twenty pounds of dynamite in the Bliss building and New York tranches of the union, declaring they have furnished the money to have not only the Bliss building, but other buildings destroyed, and the work of construction halted. The district attorney's office has refused to divulge the names of the walking delegates involved.

Later today Moran, who was to have been placed on trial on Monday, sent word to the district attorney's office that he was willing to waive trial and plead guilty to the charge on which he and the other two were indicted. His alleged confession was then taken.

Moran was arrested along with Thos. Weir and John Guthrie by central office detectives, who said they were about to place twenty pounds of dynamite in the Bliss building and blow it up.

A week after they were arrested Guthrie is said to have confessed, implicating Moran and Weir, and the walking delegates. The story told to Mr. Train today was substantially the same as that recited by Guthrie.

Moran, according to Mr. Train, told how he conferred with the walking delegates of the union and plotted to wreck bridges on buildings being put up by Post & McCord.

He explained in detail all the plans that were laid to dynamite the Bliss building, and declared emphatically that the money for the carrying out of the job was furnished by the walking delegates.

Dead in the Snow.

Winthrop, Man., March 25.—Huddled in the snow behind McDougall Methodist Church, the body of Annie Peterson, a handsome Polish girl, aged 21, was found early this morning, with not a mark upon her body or any signs about her clothing to indicate that there was foul play. The girl, who was prepossessing, was seen alive last night when she attended service at the Immaculate Conception Church.

CRACKSMEN MAKE BIG TORONTO HAUL

Go Through Watchman's Clothes But Later Return Him the Money.

Toronto, March 25.—The safe-crackers who broke into the Toronto carpet works on Friday night also visited the offices of the Puritan Knitting Mills, 1133 West King street, and Young & Co.'s, 79 Stafford street. From these last two places, however, they did not obtain more than $100, while from the carpet works it is supposed they got in the neighborhood of $1,000.

In securing the few coppers at Young & Co.'s planing mill, the robbers smashed up a great deal of the office furniture before they made their departure, taking with them a chisel and a sledge hammer.

At the Puritan Knitting Mills the yeggsman secured about $100. They passed over a bunch of envelopes containing the pay of men absent from work and threw them on top of another desk.

The carpet company job came next. As William Wright, the watchman, was coming up the stairway he was set upon by three men. They carried him into the engine-house and searched his pockets. Taking all the money he had, they left one to guard him while the others went into the main building. The one guarding him kept a revolver pointed at him.

Soon after there was an explosion, followed by a louder one. Then the two men came back and, giving him back his money, stated, "We can afford to now," and left the building.

The pay envelopes containing the money of 100 employees to be paid on Saturday were taken; altogether this amounts to over $1,000. Some silver-plate belonging to a friend of the manager was also taken. The silverware was worth $200 or more. A collection being taken up among the employees for the Sick Children's Hospital, amounting to about $200, is also missing.

CONFESSES TO MURDER

Threatened With Death Was Terrified Into the Deed.

Montreal, March 25.—A wire from St. Joseph, Beauce county, says that Bernard Rancourt was put on trial this morning for the murder of Johnny Rainville. Yesterday the widow Rainville said she did not believe Rancourt killed her husband, but the young woman's theories were upset today by a confession from the accused to High Constable Duval, of St. Mary's.

"Several times Rainville had threatened me with death," began the accused, "and he said things to me so terrible that they are still ringing in my ears. 'If you do not obey me in everything,' he declared, 'I will kill you like a dog.'"

"Meeting him alone in the road the night of Aug. 25, I was more frightened than ever because I believed my life to be in danger. In fact, I was afraid of my life whenever I would meet him. For the last few days before his death Rainville was still more terrible in his threats, and I feared for my life."

FIREBUGS AT TORONTO

Attempt to Fire a Tenement Containing Many Families.

Toronto, March 25.—A daring attempt at incendiarism in a crowded tenement house was exposed tonight, when the firemen were called out to a blaze in a cheap lodging house at St. Jarvis street, kept by Morris Diamond.

The house is a three-story and attic, with a restaurant on the ground floor, and between eight and ten families were in it at the time.

When the blaze was extinguished the firemen found every evidence that a deliberate attempt had been made to fire the building.

In the rear of the restaurant there was a mattress on the floor and beneath other furniture a can of kerosene was placed a pot half full of coal oil and a quantity of waste paper.

It was in the waste paper that the fire occurred, but there being no draft it did not communicate to the coal oil when the firemen arrived.

The proprietor of the building, Morris Diamond, had gone out about half an hour before the fire was noticed, saying he was going over to visit a brother.

FIRE DURING SERVICE

Panic Narrowly Averted in a St. Catharines Church.

St. Catharines, March 25.—A fire in the Roman Catholic Church at the corner of James and Church streets at 1:45 this morning for a time bore fair to precipitate a panic for a few minutes.

One of the candles on the altar toppled over and set fire to the lace of the cloth cover. There was an immediate blaze, and the women in the crowded edifice gasped audibly. Some nearly fainted, but men in the congregation with ready presence of mind, quieted them.

The fire was soon smothered. The damage will be but $300. The church service was interrupted and closed.

Red Hat for Duhamel.

Ottawa, March 25.—The impression is gaining ground that Archbishop Duhamel will be raised to the dignity of the cardinalate in a short time. It is understood that His Holiness the Pope signed his intention of conferring the honor on the occasion of his grace's recent visit to Rome.

CHICAGO BRUTE SENT TO GALLOW

Asks for a Light for His Cigar When the Verdict is Announced.

Chicago, Ill., March 25.—Richard G. Ives Saturday was found guilty of the murder of Mrs. Bessie Hollister and sentenced to expiate his crime on the gallows. But one ballot was taken.

When the clerk of Judge Smith's court had read the verdict every eye turned on the prisoner.

"Give me a light," he said, producing a cigar.

A new trial will be sought by the defense.

The murder of Mrs. Bessie Hollister occurred on the evening of Jan. 12 last. It was one of the most atrocious and revolting in Chicago's history.

Mrs. Hollister, the young wife of a prosperous businessman, left her home on the day of the murder to attend the funeral of a friend. Her body, so he declared, was found by Richard Ives, the morning, near a carpenter shop owned by Ives' father. Ives reported the discovery of the body to his father and the latter reported to the police.

The same day Richard Ives confessed to the police that he had committed the crime. In his confession he said he had dragged Mrs. Hollister into the alley, assaulted her and strangled her to death with a copper wire.

In court Ives declared that his mind was a blank concerning the crime, and that he did not remember making a confession. His counsel argued that the confession was obtained while Ives was under the hypnotic influence of Assistant Chief of Police Schuetler. An attempt also was made to establish an alibi.

Public feeling was stirred over this murder, as it had not been stirred before in many years. It was the climax of a wave of crime, generally charged to a police force numerically inadequate and inefficient. Public attention engaged in the consideration of a number of municipal problems by this crime was concentrated on the necessity for fuller protection of girls and women who had been the victims of thugs.

Mass meetings were held in various parts of the city and were attended liberally by conservative citizens who previously had avoided publicity. Out of private funds neighborhood police forces were provided to protect certain sections of the city, and the utmost pressure brought to bear on the city authorities to afford greater police protection. The pressure was irresistible and recently out of funds secured by the practical doubling of saloon license fees an ordinance was passed providing for 1,000 additional police.

Another Philippine Battle.

Manila, March 24.—A telegram received by the Government today from the island of Samar, says that an engagement has occurred between the Philippine army and a force of fanatical Pulajanes. Governor George Curry is reported missing. Details of the affair are lacking.

A RIGHT WAY AND A WRONG WAY

Many people have many ways to bring about the same result. Most of them are mistaken ways, but not known until the test of time points plainly to the error. Practically there are but two ways to accomplish anything; a right way and a wrong way. Take, for instance, a man with a bad back, there are lots of them, and of various kinds, some with stitches and twinges, others with cricks and twinges; then there's the dull, heavy continuous kind that lasts all day and doesn't sleep at night. They're all bad enough, they're all hard enough to get rid of. Some people rub the back with liniment, others cover it with plasters, either or both, but then they're wof, but the pain comes back—it's the wrong way to cure the trouble.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

have a way to cure backache, a way that's all their own—the right way. They're made for the kidneys only. When the kidneys fail in their work of filtering the blood the back aches because they are situated in the small of the back; backache is the kidney's warning of trouble, and every day you let the warning go it brings you nearer to urinary disorders, Diabetes, Bright's Disease, etc.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure every form of kidney ills and that's why they bring such quick relief from backache. Mr. Fred Gray, Good Corner, N.B., writes: "I was greatly troubled with pain across my back. I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, and received so much benefit from them that I consider them the best remedy for kidney trouble there is. I would not be without them in my house."

Priced 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25, all dealers or The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

Consults A Physician

But does NOT Tell Him All.

Few women confide fully in a physician. They simply will not tell him all. That's why many doctors fail to cure female diseases.

Every woman reads the ordeal of the physician's consulting room. A sensitive, refined woman shrinks from the searching questions and the physical examination!

It is not so in writing to Mrs. Pinkham. Thousands of women owe their present health and happiness (yes, and their good looks, too) to the fact that they have told all their physical troubles to Mrs. Pinkham and followed her advice and been cured of female diseases.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Cures more women every year than any other medicine in the world. If you are in doubt about your case, write in perfect confidence to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. You will receive in reply a personal letter, free of charge. Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia Pinkham, and for twenty-five years under her direction, and since her decease, she has been advising sick women free of charge.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered intensely with suppressed periods and pain every month for years, and could get no relief from physicians' prescriptions or other medicine. I was advised to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and did so, and in a very short time the flow was regular, natural and without pain.

I am, indeed, a grateful, happy woman for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me.

ELLEN WALBY, Wellington Hotel, Ottawa, Ont.

Mrs. Hayes also profited by Mrs. Pinkham's advice.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Sometime ago I wrote you describing my symptoms (fibroid tumor) and asked your advice. You replied and I followed all your directions carefully and to-day am a well woman.
