St. Louis, June 21.—The Tigers made it three in a row from the Browns to-day. And what was worse—the latest indignity heaped upon the McAleer crowd was a shut-out. The champions only got two runs themselves, but since they were more than St. Louis was able to get across the plate the victory belongs to the visitors.

Donovan the Man.
"Wild Bill" Donovan, pride of Tiger fandom, gets the credit for the whitewashing of the Missourians. It was the "Smiler's" first real appearance in the box of the season. That is, it was the first nine-inning contest in which William officiated.

There have been wild assertions concerning Donovan's condition this season. Some of the wise ones predicted that because Jennings had not been using him in the box that the twirler's arm had gone back on him. To-day's performance should allay all the fears of the skeptical ones.

Donovan in Great Form.
The Browns or any other club could not win against the twirler of the day today. In the nine innings the St. Louis sluggers got but five hits. With the exception of the second inning, when Jones and Wallace each got a single, there was no one run in which the Browns got more than a single bingle. Three of the Detroit players went down to first on passes. But Donovan came within an ace of equaling the strikeout record for the season of 1909 when he fanned nine of McAleer's men.

Graham Opposed "Smiler."
Opposed to Donovan was Graham. The youngster twirled an excellent game, allowing but five hits during his stay in the box. He fanned three of the Browns and walked one. It was a wild pitch, however, that cost him the game, for although the champions made another score in the ninth inning, the first one would have proved sufficient to defeat St. Louis.

McAleer took Graham out after the seventh inning to allow "Dode" Criss, pinch hitter to take the place of the twirler's turn at bat. "Dode" did nothing with the willow that Graham could not have done—he failed to get a hit.

Bailey Goes In.
Young Mr. Bailey went in against the champions in the next inning and continued pitching until the contest was over. But one hit made off him in the two rounds, but this one, combined with a vicious heavy by the twirler, brought in the league leaders' second tally.

Donovan kept the Browns from scoring with his effective twirling. But the Browns defeated themselves, so far as the Tigers' runs were concerned—to be more exact, the St. Louis pitchers threw the victory away.

Tiger Stock Advances.
Tiger stock has advanced considerably as a result of the three games. Aided by the Red Sox, who took two games from the Athletics today, the champions now have a clear lead over Mack's team, their nearest competitor in the percentage column, of 99 points. On the other hand, the trio of defeats has come next to landing the Browns in last place. They are separated from the tallent Nationals by the small margin of two points.

Crawford Scores.
It took six innings today before the score had to vary his succession of ciphers on the board. Then it was Sam Crawford who caused a run to be chalked up for the Tigers. There were two down in this round when "Wahoo," with a mighty swat, sent the ball into the middle garden for a total of two sacks. Graham took flight at Cobb's appearance at bat and tossed the ball several yards from the plate. Before Stephens could recover it, Crawford had crossed the plate. Cobb dumped one in front of the plate after Sam had registered and then purlined second, but Rossman's grounder to "Bobby" Wallace put a stop to further tallying.

Cobb Makes Circuit.
Crawford scored the first run unaided by any member of his own team. Cobb brought in the second under similar circumstances. It came in the ninth after Bailey had fanned Crawford. Tyrus beat out a slow one. Bailey picked up the ball and threw it high over Jones' head. Cobb, with a burst of speed, continued on his way around the bases. The Georgian came home on the scratch bingle and Bailey's error.

Donovan Prevents Tally.
There were but few opportunities for the Browns to score. When one presented itself, Donovan prevented the occurrence by fanning the batter when a hit would have turned the trick. In the second there were two singles for the Browns in succession but with one out. Schaefer was responsible for the retirement of second man, by making a sensational catch.

Donovan then struck Graham out. Hoffman was passed in the eighth inning after Hartnell had gone out. The center fielder then stole second. Donovan appeared little nettled over the outlook and fanned Griggs and Ferris in succession.

Athletics Drop Two Exciting Contests to Mack's Team.

Boston, June 21.—Boston won two exciting games from Philadelphia to-day, the first 6 to 5 and the second 4 to 2. Errors and timely hitting were responsible for the first victory. The visitors were held to two hits by Wood in the second contest, and Combs' wildness, with bunched hits by Boston, gave the locals the game. Score:

YANKS AND SENATORS DIVIDED THE HONORS

First Game of a Double-Header Went to Washington 6 to 4—New York Took Second.

New York, June 21.—Washington and New York again broke even in a double-header today. The visitors won the first game, 6 to 4, gaining the deciding runs in the ninth inning on hits by Browne, Unglaub and Donovan. In the second contest, which New York won 3 to 2, fumbles by Browne, Washington's left fielder, gave the locals two runs. The scores:

IS IT WORTH WHILE TO BE A STAR?

"YES," SAYS HANS—NAMES HIS SALARY

Along about March 21 each year Hans Wagner, of Pittsburgh, gets a letter that reads something like this:

"Dear Hans: Inclosed is a contract for the coming baseball season. It is all blank, as you will see. Fill it out to suit yourself, Hans, but in fixing your salary please remember that times are very bad. Still, we must have you and will pay whatever you say."

Hans gets this letter while he is at the office of the independent steel plant that he and his brother own. He studies the statistics and finds that 266,427 persons paid to see the games at Pittsburgh last year. Then back goes this letter to Barney Dreyfuss:

"Meln Lieber Barney: Yours chust received. Times was pretty hard here, too, I hardly ever saw der rail markets so bad. But maybe I get away this summer for a little while if you pay me $12,000. I hate to say this, but what can I do?"

This is fact—Hans fixes his salary and expert opinion says it is $2,000 a month for six months.

And here's the point: There are a lot of Hans Wagners—big and little—in the baseball business, and any undertaking that can pay such salaries may be regarded as having reached that dignity which entitles it to be called an industry.

Most of the baseball fans may not know that there is such a thing as the baseball industry of the United States, but there is. Nor can it be described without the use of big figures. It is great in income, great in expenditure, great in the number of men employed, and still greater in the number of patrons.

THE BANKERS DEFEATED HYMANS BY 7 TO 5

Fast Game in Commercial League Lost by the Tanners Who Kick on the Umpire.

Bankers 7, Hymans 5.
The Bankers won out in a fast game last evening, the score being 7 to 5. The Hymans men claim that the umpire was not in shape, otherwise they might have made a better showing. Cope, who occupied the mound for the Bankers, was wild, and was replaced in the third inning, being replaced by Lee, who pitched the fine game.

COVERPOINT JOLTS
For the ninety-seventh time, Alfie Shrub and Tom Longboat have been matched, and the affair creates as much interest as an outbreak of measles in the family of the Rajah of Bing-Bong. We are so busy watching the Tigers and the Pirates that we almost forgot about the Marathoners.

Just as the Toronto Tecumsehs were starting out for the Marathon, the New Westminster bunch showed some of the real rough work of which they were capable. Just to impress the Easterners. The object lesson will no doubt have its usefulness.

Bobby Kerr won a race in England, and Walker, the Springfield, did the same. We are waiting until the pair get together, and then we will see.

AMERICAN LEAGUE BALL RECORDS COMPILED TO END OF THE WEEK

THE DETROIT GAME

St. Louis, June 21.—It will be either Dineen or Criss for the Browns in Tuesday's contest at Detroit. Waddell will pitch about Wednesday.

Jennings expects to use one of his youngsters in the opening game at Detroit. He pitched three of the veterans here.

There will be five games in a row between Tigers and Browns, the play-off of a postponement being announced for Friday.

Stone was out of the game again. He discovered on Sunday that he is not ready to resume. Hoffman continues, but is far from being at his best.

Little Owrie Bush is surely a sensation. He's always backing up second and third and can be found behind the plate on throws to the pan.

One would have thought the Tigers were the home team the way the handful of "fans" cheered them on every play. The Champs are popular here.

Bailey seems to be held mainly for the purpose of finishing games against the champions. But he probably will start one of the games in Detroit.

Most of the five St. Louis hits were dirty taps. Donovan had a lot of speed and a good jump on his ball, and the Browns could not seem to meet it squarely.

Donovan had started in only one game previously, though he finished two or three. In his only other game of record, at Detroit, the Athletics knocked him off the slab.

The poor showing of the Browns has started a crowd down to something around the 1,000 mark. It was the smallest gathering that has entered Sportsman's Park this season.

Considerable interest was manifested by the players in the news from Chicago. The game there was called off, and it is expected that a double-header will be played on Tuesday.

Germany Schaefer pulled off the star fielding play. It came in the second inning, a great stop over second on Stephens' blunder. It shut off a pair of runs, as two were on the sacks.

Graham is a luckless pitcher against Detroit. That club never hits him, and seldom scores more than a run or two, but his own team fails to do any thing for him when he is in against the Tigers.

Jim McAleer is down on his luck this season, and the crowds give no consideration to his or his team's fortune. They expected the Browns to make the pace, and can't stand for the disappointment.

Criss, the local pinch hitter, was rushed into the fray in the seventh, with two men on and two down. He rolled a grounder to Bush. On Sunday Criss was used as an emergency hitter in both games, and each time hit safely.

The Tigers were pretty happy after the game. They figure that with Mullin in his great form, Donovan back in shape, and three or four other good pitchers on the staff, it will take a lot of work to beat them to the pennant pole.
