DRESSED HOGS STRONG ON LOCAL MARKET

Sold at From $11 to $11.25 Per Cwt. Very Few Were Offered.

There was a very small turnout on the local market this morning, due probably to the cold and the drifted snow on the country roads. The few hogs offered brought very fair prices.

Dressed hogs were very strong, selling for $11.25, and in some instances $11.50, but even at these high figures there were comparatively few offered.

Hay is unusually scarce, and not of the best quality as a whole, but first quality stuff sold readily at $15.50, while the majority of the hay on hand is of a poor sort at $12.50.

Cats were rather scarce, and sold from $1.50 to $2.00, with a fairly brisk demand. A small supply of wheat was offered at $1.00, and sold well, while beans sold at $1.25 per bushel.

Very little else was offered. One or two persons offered vegetables, mostly lettuce and celery, the former at 40c per dozen and the latter at 25c per dozen.
