That's the humorist who's going to write up the World Series in advance for The Advertiser. WHO IS HE? HE IS

The world's greatest baseball fan, and the funniest comedian in America.

Baseball people know Cohan is the greatest and funniest fan who ever stepped into a grand stand. Always something doing in the screeching line when George is at the game.

He proved himself a thirtythird degree fan this year when Frank Chance opened in Chicago as an American League manager. Cohan shut down his theatre the afternoon of the game, which cost him $1,300, and he paid $1,000 for a box seat, the receipts being for Chance's benefit!

YES, BASEBALL IS WHERE GEORGE LIVES!

Cohan has written three stories for the London Advertiser on the world's series. which begin Tuesday, Oct. 7. They are full of funny remarks, thoroughly Cohanesque, but they deal out baseball logic by the chunk.

He has sized up the Giants and Athletics, and predicts the outcome of the struggle in an entertaining and convincing manner. The first story will be printed Monday.

DOUBLE PLAYS BEAT YANKS. New York, Sept. 26.—The Washingons spread a network of double plays round the infield at the Polo Grounds today, and every time the New Yorks had a chance to score they ran into one. The home team was shut out by score of 3 to 0. The New Yorks ammed themselves up against no less than five of these double plays, and rincipally for that reason were goos egged nothwithstanding that Joe Boehng ladled out eight bases on balls

London's First Baseman. I read that the Canadian League is rying to invade Erie, Pa. Personally, think it would be a gool move. Eries a city of about 75,000 population, roke into prowhen the had a team the Ohio nd Pennsylvania the league composed of following Ohio: Akron, Ohio; East Liverpool, Ohio; Can-Pct. but despite this fact the owners made .820 | money.

The following year Erie entered the Central League, and finished in third place. The Central League was a welve-club league at that time, and Shaughnessy won the pennant with clubs finished within 80 points of each other. Last winter, this league was resulting in a victory for the Pirates split into two leagues, the small cities 6 to 1. > There is no organized league ball club in Erie now, and the Canadian League should stand a good chance to secure a franchise there. Erie has a new ball park, laid out like a big ace clubs, similar to the Polo grounls. John Murphy, the groundkeeper of the Polo grounds, who just recently died, laid out the park and superintended the building of it. Erle fans know baseball, and it is not necessary to have a pennant winner in order to get their support. I consider Erie just as good a ball town as London, and London is the best ball town in the anadian League. They never had less han 4,000 people there on Saturdays and Sundays, and some Sundays the attendance ran as high as 8,000.

Erie has turned out as many good ball players as London. It is Mike Donlin's home town, and he learned the game there. Mike Morrisey was also born and brought up there. Umpire "Duffy" Finneran, the former National League umpire, lives in Erie. Gilhooley, who was purchased by Frank Chance for the Yankees from Montreal a few weeks ago, played with Erie's Central League team last year, while "Bobby" Schang, a brother of Schang of the Athletics, who is billed for a major league berth next season also played with Erle last year, Erie is just a six hour jump from London. This is about half as big as the London to Ottawa jump, or about will be a profitable move for the league onated the prizes.

Next Friday evening Messrs. Scott and and I believe the fans of Eric would and I believe the fans of Eric would Scott will furnish the prizes. A larger entry than ever is expected, as these regular weekly tournaments are proving a big success.
