Jall Prisoners Unhandicapped by Presence of Filthy Lucre.

There are indications of "hard times" at the county jail these days. That is, the prisoners, who are at present working for the county for their board, have not much of a legacy to look forward to when they finally shake Governor Carter's hand in farewell, with a promise never to come back.

The governor declared that he had known the time when the little safe in his office contained several hundred dollars belonging to prisoners, but that the present batch, amounting to 45 souls in Dec. 49% 49% 49% 49% 49% 49% all, could not produce 50 cents between them, if their lives depended

This the governor takes to be a sign of the times. "Sometimes the boys have little or nothing stored away in the present. I certainly feel sorry for the poor fellow, who after spending some has to start all over again
