Local Stocks Quiet and Steady — Loca Money Market Keeps Stiff—Grain Markets Steady—Produce and Provisions—Beerbohm's Report—Liverpool Markets —Business Troubles—Miscellaneous.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, Jan. 21.

A private despatch received at Chicago to-day from Minneapolis says along the A. & D. division of St. Paul road there are in the elevators about 1,000,000 bushels of wheat, and the crop is about one half marketed.

Yesterday's buyers in Chicago have been sellers to-day.

Yesterday's New York stock market was the narrowest and most professional that has been witnessed since the animation incidental to the embarrassment of the Barings. The indisposition to trade is attributed by almost everyone to uncertainty as to the outcome of pending silver legislation.

THE STOCK MARKET.

Local stocks were quiet and steady to-day. Montreal held 2½ higher, with bids ½ lower. Ontario held 1 higher. Bids for Toronto declined 2. Merchants' higher, 143½ being asked and 141 bid. Commerce higher, 127½ being asked and 127 bid. Bids for Dominion declined ½. Western Assurance higher, 144½ being asked and 143½ bid. N.W.L. held ¼ higher, with bids ¼ lower. C.P.R. lower, 75¼ being asked and 74¾ bid. Quotations are:

THE MONEY MARKET.

Local money continues unchanged, with call loans stiff at 5½ to 6 per cent.

Money is quoted at 2½ per cent. in New York. Open market discount rate in London is unchanged at 1⅞ per cent.

The London Economist of the 10th inst., referring to the reduction of the Bank of England discount rate, remarks: "It would have been better, we think, had the downward movement in the value of money been less rapid, but seeing to what extent outside rates had dropped, no good purpose would have been served by keeping the bank rate at 5 per cent. That rate was of no use as a protection to the stock of bullion against further withdrawals, and if it could not be made to serve that purpose, it was a needless burden upon business. * * * What must not be forgotten, however, is the possibility that, as a consequence of the cheapening of money, a foreign demand for gold will spring up."
