Mr. Edward Hicks has contracted to remodel the United Church at South Farmington and also to erect an apple warehouse at Nictaux Falls for Nothard and Lowe of London, Eng.

The many friends of Miss Kathleen Dargie held a handkerchief and miscellaneous shower for her at the home of Miss Annie Anderson, on Tuesday evening of this week. Miss Dargie leaves for Montreal on Thursday where she will visit her sister for a time and later probably train for a nurse.

Little Michael Rhymer, of West Paradise, was very badly injured one day last week when he got caught in the engine of the dusting machine. His leg was quite badly cut, and he received a bad shaking up, but we are glad to report that he is now on the road to recovery and will soon be around again.

The annual Cricket Club dance was a huge success, some fifty couples attending. The music furnished by a mixed orchestra consisting of Mrs. Kenneth Leslie, piano; Mr. Ross Bishop, violin; Mr. Herman Young, base horn, and Mr. Lou Young, cornet, was of a high class nature, and greatly enjoyed by listeners as well as dancers.

Among the list of honor graduates from the Halifax Conservatory of Music whose photos appear in Thursday's Halifax Herald, is Miss Ethel Daniels, daughter of Attorney General O. T. Daniels, and Mrs. Daniels, Miss Daniels who is an honor graduate in Piano forte playing, arrived home last week and is spending the summer with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Whitehead left for England on Friday last. Mrs. Whitehead leaves many friends in Bridgetown. She will be missed not only by her own circle of personal friends but by all those who in sickness or trouble were the recipients of her warm sympathy and generosity. A host of good wishes follow her to her new home.

On Saturday afternoon John Norman, while playing baseball on grounds near the river, received painful injuries to his right eye and will show the effects for several days, though fortunately no bones were broken. Another boy, Roland Cole, was at the plate and accidentally let slip his bat which struck young Norman over the eye. The effect of the blow caused much swelling, entirely closing the optic.

A very quiet wedding took place last week at the Baptist parsonage, Kentville, the Rev. Mr. Ross officiating, when Miss Hazel Daniels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newman Daniels, of West Paradise, was united in marriage to Mr. Thomas Borden, only son of Mrs. Christopher Borden, of Bridgetown. This was quite a surprise to the many friends in town as they had not anticipated the happy event to come off so soon. We wish them much joy and happiness.

At the annual meeting of St. Mary's Church Guild, Belleisle, on Sunday last, the following were elected to office for the ensuing year:—Pres., Mrs. R. L. Dodge; Vice-Pres., Mrs. W. E. Bent; Secy., Mrs. Miss A. T. Giesner; Mrs. S. F. Wade and Miss J. T. Willett. The summer week day services will begin to-morrow (Thursday) commencing at eight p.m. A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the annual S. S. and Congregational picnic.

Mr. James Marshall, of Clarence, this week purchased from Mr. V. P. Smith the valuable farm property known as the Clarence Young farm just east of the town limits. The transaction was arranged and put through by the Lloyd Real Estate Agency. The Manager, Mr. V. A. Lloyd, though in the Real Estate business but a short time, is becoming generally recognized as an excellently qualified gentleman to arrange property business to the general satisfaction of all concerned.

A baseball game of not little importance took place last week when the B. Bridgetown Cradle Junior team defeated a combined Lawrence town and Paradise team at Paradise, with a score of 18-2. Due to some misunderstanding the captain of the Paradise team neglected to inform his team of the challenge of the Bridgetown team and arranged a game with the Lawrence town team for the same day. On the arrival of our team they found the Paradise team unprepared to play, but nothing daunted they challenged a picked team from both towns and came out the victor with the above named score.

Mr. W. A. Swift, Water Street, has the distinction of putting the first ripe strawberries on the local market and on Friday morning, June 18th, picked in his garden three boxes of well developed and beautifully flavored berries. They met with a ready sale at forty cents a box. Mr. Swift has thanks of THE MONITOR for a box of these fancy flavored berries.

A number of local horses will, it is expected, be entered in the races at Middleton on July 1st, Dominion Day. Among these are Mr. A. G. Marshall, "Cornercracker" will be handled and driven by Mr. H. B. Annis; Mr. Norman Dargie's "Gray Bird"; Mr. Elias Ramey's "Georgie I". These horses go in the "green" class. They are all nice looking specimens of horse flesh and should make the others step out lively.

The members of Crescent Lodge No. 63 I.O.O.F., are urgently requested to attend lodge on Thursday night, June 22nd. Two problems of prime importance to Oddfellows, viz: "The advisability of establishing a juvenile branch of the Order" and "An advertising campaign for the purpose of procuring the Oddfellows Home for Bridgetown" are to be dealt with. Your interest in these questions can be best manifested by being present Thursday night.—Claude L. Gillis, R. Secy.

Capt. Clayton W. Collins, of Annapolis, was in Yarmouth on Wednesday evening, having come from Meteghan, where his steamer C. D. 96 is undergoing repairs and retitting, preparatory to taking up the new service which Capt. Collins and others propose to establish between Weymouth and other St. Mary's Bay ports and St. John. The steamer is now, barring government inspection, ready to go into commission and Inspector Currie, who went from Halifax to New York on the Red Cross liner Rosland, returned via the Prince Arthur to Yarmouth this morning and proceeded to Meteghan to inspect Capt. Collins' steamer.—Herald.

OBITUARY

The death occurred on Friday night at his home in Upper Clarence of Mr. Edwin J. Elliott, aged seventy-three years, a prominent citizen widely known and highly esteemed through the course of a long and active life.

He leaves to mourn their loss, one son, Stewart, at Clarence; four daughters, Mrs. Edmon Marshall, Clarence; Mrs. Dr. Vernon Ross, Paradise; Miss Sarah and Miss Edwina, teacher in the school for the Blind in Halifax. L. W. Elliott, Clarence, is a brother of the deceased and Mrs. B. D. Nelly, Bridgetown, a sister. Mrs. Miller, who was a daughter of the late Benjamin Miller, of Clarence, and a sister of O. S. Miller, of Bridgetown, predeceased him some years ago.

The late Mr. Edwin J. Elliott was a man universally esteemed and respected and a deacon in the Baptist Church. He managed with much success his large farm in Clarence and was also in association with Mr. O. S. Miller, a pioneer in the apple expert business from the Valley. A Liberal-Conservative in politics he was years ago candidate for parliamentary honors.

The funeral services were conducted on Sunday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. W. Steadman Swift and the funeral was very largely attended, interment being in the family lot at Pine Grove Cemetery, Middleton.
