

LETTER IV.

	PAGE
Arrival at Montreal	59
Interview with the Duke of Richmond and Colonel Cockburn	60
Objections to a Residence in the Lower Province	61
The Country between Quebec and Montreal—Trois Rivières—Lake St. Petre—William Henry—Berthier	62
Montreal-island, Description of the City	66
Sheet-iron Doors and Window Shutters	66
Public Buildings	69
Banking-houses—Public Library—Newspapers	77
Market-Places—Commerce—Defenceless Situation—Steam-boats and their Accommodations—Shallowness of the Water between Quebec and Montreal	80

LETTER V.

Embarkation at La Chine for Prescott	83
Rapidity of the St. Lawrence—Vessels used in navigating it	84
Lake St. Louis—Cascades—The Cedars	85
Exertions of the Boatmen—Durham Boats	87
Conduct of an American Farmer	88
Appearance of the Country	93
Division—Line of the Province	94
Prescott—Ogdensburgh—Brockville—Kingston—Fort Frederick	97
Lake Ontario—Town of York—Garrison and Public Buildings	102

LETTER VI.

Choice of a Settlement	103
Colonel Thomas Talbot's eccentric habits	105
Preference of the Township of London	106
Progress towards this point of Settlement	107
The Country on the River Ouse—Villages belonging to the Indians of the Six Nations	108
Interview with one of the Native Catechists	109
Arrival at Port Talbot	111
Disaster which befel my Father's Party on Lake Erie	113
Joyful meeting	114
Situation of the Township of London—Form and Extent	115
First Day and Night on our American Estate—Wolf-Hunt in the Morning	117
Operations and stay in the Woods previous to the Arrival of the Family	118