MARKET GARDENING

"Asparagus," F. H. Hexamer, 50 cents. "Cabbage, Cauliflower and Allied Vegetables," C. L. Allen, 50 cents. "Gardening for Profit," Peter Henderson, $1.50. "Market Gardening and Farm Notes," Burnet Landreth, $1.00. "Vegetables Under Glass," Henry A. Dreer, 25 cents.

OUR SPECIAL OFFER

We will give any of the above books to any of our subscribers who will send us one new subscription for each 25 cents on the price of the book. For example: "Garden Making," by L. H. Bailey, is sold for $1.00 a copy. We will give a copy of the book free for four new subscriptions. If the price of the book were $1.50, as in the case of "Gardening for Profit," by Peter Henderson, then we would send it free on receipt of six new subscriptions. For each

25 cents or fraction thereof, in the value of the book, send one new subscription.

This is a good way in which to secure a library on any horticultural subject. Besides the books we have named above, we have a large number of others. Our catalog will be mailed free to all who are interested.

Articles on Dairying

Those readers of THE CANADIAN HORTICULTURIST who are interested in dairying would do well to secure the four issues of The Canadian Dairymen for June. Each of these issues will be special and timely in their nature. The subjects that will be given prominence in them will be respectively: fertilizers for dairy farmers; transportation and cold storage; harvesting hay and barn construction. In connection with these subjects, articles and letters of a seasonable nature will appear in each issue. These will treat on all phases of dairy farming, and should prove of great value to dairy farmers.

The regular departments of the paper, including the cheese and creamery sections, will be particularly strong, and will include many articles and discussions on live topics. The Canadian Dairymen is the only dairy paper published in Canada. It is a weekly paper devoted to the interests of dairy farmers, creamerymen and cheese makers. The subscription price is one dollar a year. Sample copies can be secured by writing to The Dairymen Publishing Co., Toronto, mentioning that you saw this notice in THE CANADIAN HORTICULTURIST.

The Cobourg Horticultural Society is flourishing. It deserves the encouragement of all persons living in its vicinity, as it has done much to improve and beautify the town.

Save Your Eyes By Using a Beck-Iden Acetylene Lamp

Over ninety per cent of all eye troubles are due to the use of unnatural artificial lights,—

And any light which contains yellow or red rays is unnatural.

The only natural light is a pure white light, absolutely free from yellow or red rays.

This is the kind of light that the Beck-Iden Lamp gives.

The light produced by the Beck-Iden Lamp is the only artificial illuminant that resembles sunlight.

It's absolutely impossible for the Beck-Iden Lamp to explode.

Makes an ideal light for country homes.

For full descriptions, cost of light per hour, etc., write for booklet.
