

An effort is being made to raise $50,000 for an addition to the St. Paul Hospital, of Vancouver.

The Royal Columbian Hospital at New Westminster cared for 525 patients last year. A call is made for $30,000 for better equipment. The government has given $100,000 and the city $130,000 for the erection of the hospital.

The Medicine Hat Medical Association has elected the following officers:—President, Dr. C. F. Smith; Vice-President, Dr. F. W. Grishaw; Sec.-Treas., Dr. H. Orr; Ex. Com., Drs. Boyd and Thomas.

The two medical societies in Winnipeg have united. The officers are: J. R. Jones, president; J. A. Gunn, vice-president; S. A. Smith, secretary; Geo. Stephens, treasurer; J. H. Halpenny, J. Lehman, R. F. Rorke.

It is proposed to establish a Provincial Medical Library for Saskatchewan, under the control of the College of Physicians and Surgeons. The books would be kept in Regina, and loaned throughout the province.

Regina has voted $125,000 for hospital extension.

North Battleford is to have a hospital that will cost $30,000.

The Royal Alexandra and Southside hospitals of Edmonton, have amalgamated.

The Alberta Government has granted $150,000 to the Victoria Public Hospital.

The City Council of Prince Rupert has made a grant of $10,000 to the hospital there.

The new hospital in South Edmonton will cost $100,000. It is to be of steel and brick construction.

The medical inspection of public school children is taking a prominent place in Vancouver. During the year 47,760 children were inspected, and 6,879 were carefully examined.

The per diem cost of patients in the Vancouver General Hospital was $1.98. The trustees are having a hard time financing the institution.

The Royal Inland Hospital, B.C., had a deficit of $3,326 last year. The daily cost was $2.07.

The new hospital at Mount Coquitlam, B.C., is nearing completion. It is a handsome building with accommodation for 650 patients. The institution has about 1,000 acres.

There has been some delay in arriving at a working basis for the management of hospitals matters in Calgary. There has been considerable feeling in favor of a hospital system owned and controlled by the city. In the meantime there is great lack of accommodation.

The trustees of High River Hospital have been making an appeal