Canadian National Exhibition—Exhibit of Colonial Ink Co., Limited.

Mr. W. E. Hebb, for some years in the book and stationery trade in Halifax, was an exhibition visitor in Toronto. He is now Halifax agent for the Equitable Life of New York.

Thomas S. McCrae, of the export department of the American Lead Pencil Co., N. Y., resumed work again on August 10, after a few weeks' vacation around Boston and vicinity.

Mr. George Stewart, formerly in the employ of the Methodist Book and Publishing House, Toronto, is at present covering the Maritime Provinces in the interests of the Oxford University Press.

Mr. Walter F. Mallen is now in charge of the pencil department of the Canada branch of the L. E. Waterman Co. As he is an old Montreal boy his many friends welcome his return to Canada from the New York office.

The Copp-Clark Co., Limited, have opened one of the finest sample rooms of its kind in Canada, at room 138 Windsor Hotel, Montreal. Mr. J. W. Burns, eastern traveler for the company, will have charge of this sample room.

The Chas. H. Elliott Co., Philadelphia, are increasing their storage capacity for both paper and envelopes by the enlargement of their plant and the building of lofts each of which will have a capacity of about 4,000,000 envelopes.

Mr. N. A. Sinclair, one of the directors of Warwick Bros. & Rutter, Limited, Toronto, has lately returned from a buying trip to New York. While away Mr. Sinclair secured some special lines and novelties, which will make their mark during the Christmas sales.

The second annual picnic and games of the employees of the Manufacturing Stationers Co., Montreal, was held at Otterburn Park on a Saturday in August. Two trains were needed to carry the crowd, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather. The races and games were well contested, and it is safe to say everybody felt satisfied with the day's outing.

Mr. Lemon and Mr. Dunn, of Toronto, are now with Mr. E. M. Renouf, Montreal. The former gentleman is in charge of the society and commercial stationery department, while the latter looks after the wholesale schoolbook department. Mr. Oliver, late of Simpkin, Marshall, London, Eng., has taken full charge of the retail book department for Mr. Renouf.

The exhibition was the excuse for a good many booksellers and stationers coming to Toronto on business trips. Among those met with at the jobbers were Messrs. D. Baikie of Sudbury, George Moore of Parry Sound, George Thomas of Bracebridge, R. M. Pitts of Cornwall, W. Cooper of Clinton, C. H. Thorburn of Ottawa, John H. Lee of Woodstock, N. B., Richard Uglow of Kingston.
