

"DID HE GET IN?"

Little Charlie R— had listened very attentively while his father read at family-worship the third chapter of Revelation. But when he had repeated that beautiful verse. "Behold I stand at the door, and knock: If any man hear my voice and open the door; I will come in to him, and will sup with him and he with me," he could not wait until his father had finished but ran up to him with the anxious inquiry, "Father did he get in?" I would ask the same question to every child, "Has the Saviour got into your heart?" he has knocked again and again; He is knocking now. Open your heart and bid Him welcome, and this will be the happiest day of your life.—Early Days.
