

Splendid New Fiction

NANCY THE JOYOUS. A Novel of pure delight. By Edith Stow. Illustrated in color. - - - $1.00

A story of the Tennessee Mountains, where the sweet-scented, colorful woodland flowers abound, and where whimsical, adorable and humorous Nancy, 'midst the sunshine of gladness and delight, gains the love of the simple mountaineers and learns the joy of living and doing for others.

LITTLE EVE EDGARTON. By Eleanor Hallowell Abbott, author of "Molly Make-Believe," "The White Linen Nurse," etc. Eight full-page illustrations. - - $1.00

Little Eve is a rather amazing young woman, who is ignored by the fashionable people at the gay summer hotel, where she, too, is staying, because she wears queer clothes, rides recklessly and has unusual manners—due to twenty years of knocking around the world with her eccentric father.

THE SERGEANT OF FORT TORONTO.

By Geo. F. Millner. $1.25
Five full-page illustrations.

A new Canadian romance, which is founded on a series of historical facts. The scene is laid in the year 1749, and centres about the Old French Fort, the birthplace of the present City of Toronto.

THE LONE WOLF.

By Louis Joseph Vance.
Illustrated. $1.25

Louis Joseph Vance plays upon the keyboard of human emotions with a master hand, and his new novel has all the qualities which have made his other stories so popular—absorbing mystery, startling adventure, rapid action and irrepressible humor.

BIG TREMAINE. By Marie Van Vorst.
Cloth. Illustrated. - - - $1.35

This is a novel of mental struggle and deep human emotion, whose appeal never flags from beginning to end. It is a story that invites comparison with Paul Leicester Ford's famous novel, "The Honorable Peter Stirling," published twenty years ago; for John Tremaine is just such another big American who develops supreme strength of character.

THE WAY OF THE STRONG. By Ridgwell Cullum. Illustrated. - - - $1.35

The gold-fields of the Yukon and the wheat-fields of Western Canada form the background on which Mr. Cullum has painted a picture of the struggles of primitive man with the forces of Nature. Elemental passion, intense action, and mystery are interwoven to make a picture that grapples and holds the attention like hoops of steel. The love story of Monica and Alexander Hendrie, the wheat king, looms large on the canvas. Mr. Cullum's gift of narration and power in character drawing are shown in their fullest development. It is a story such as a man writes but once in a lifetime.
