

ARTICLE XV

The Government of the Republic of Burundi agrees to extend the privileges and exemptions referred to in Articles VI to XIII and Annex "B" to non-governmental institutions and organizations and to firms engaged in any development assistance project pursuant to an agreement between the Government of the Republic of Burundi and the non-governmental institution or organization or the firm, to their Canadian personnel working in that country and to their dependents.

ARTICLE XVI

The Government of Canada and the Government of the Republic of Burundi shall consult each other in respect of any matter that may arise from or in connection with this Agreement.

ARTICLE XVII

Differences which may arise in the interpretation and application of the provisions of this Agreement or a subsidiary arrangement shall be settled by means of negotiations between the Government of Canada and the Government of the Republic of Burundi or in any other manner mutually agreed upon.

ARTICLE XVIII

This Agreement shall enter into force on signature and shall remain in force until terminated by either party on six (6) months' notice in writing to the other party. The responsibilities of the Government of Canada and of the Government of the Republic of Burundi with regard to projects being carried out by virtue of subsidiary arrangements entered into pursuant to Article II of this Agreement, and begun prior to the receipt of the termination notice referred to above, shall continue until completion of such projects as if this Agreement remained in force for the whole duration of each project.
