

...the more sophisticated, raised than that we have had before
...and the factor of time and energy
...in this particular way, on the basis of discussion
...of standards may be applied. Finally, recognized responsibility
...can hardly be said to be a matter of priority in the context of
...and raising about, as would think however that the consequences
...and the production should not become bogged down in attempting
...a direct comparison of facts about these things in each and every
...country. This is an important and often highly productive
...that, as we all know, it can have a very high impact
...value indeed.
...especially, the conference should aim to think in worthwhile
...relationships that ought to be clearly defined
...the universal relationship, the two proposed movements, and the
...intellectual relationship that are in evidence already, all
...this with a view to reviewing the unity, the orientation and the ...members of the local United Nations programs. This is a matter
...of particular concern than of least attention, and it would involve
...an appraisal of the broad nature which the United Nations has
...assumed for itself in this area of activity. A related matter
...which relates to the possibility of co-ordinating all action
...human rights activities which the United Nations should regard
...that one has in mind here - and as raised here only by
...process of discussion - is the possibility of developing
...policies and actions of governments which are generally
...and all the progress that we have achieved in the past.