

Those ideals that are expressed so nobly in the Charter of the United Nations and in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights constitute the greatest vision in the history of mankind - a series of goals that will be fully worthy of the sacrifices of countless men and women who have lived and died in their pursuit, and which are justifiably demanding of our greatest endeavours.

---

s/c