

27 Upper Addison Gardens.

London, W. 14.

Feb. 15, 1927.

My dear Sir Arthur:

You may perhaps remember that when I saw you at Christmas time you were good enough to give me a letter of introduction to Principal Barker of King's College. Your letter has been such a help to me that I feel I want to thank you for it.

I came with a letter from Columbia to Sir Israel Gollancz, but he is ill just