

Division of the Province.

BY a Proclamation published in the QUEBEC GAZETTE of the 24th. Novr. 1791, the late Province of Quebec was divided into two distinct Provinces—to be called the PROVINCE of UPPER-CANADA, and the PROVINCE of LOWER-CANADA.

THE LINE OR DIVISION

“ To commence at a Stone Boundary on the “ North Bank of the Lake St. Francis, at “ the Cove West of Pointe au Bodét, in the “ Limit between the Township of Lancaster
 “ and the Seigneurie of New Longueuil, run“ ning along the said Limit in the Direction
 “ of North thirty-four Degrees West to the “ westernmost Angle of the said Seigneurie
 “ of New Longueuil, thence along the North“ western Boundary of the Seigneurie of “ Vaudreuil, running North twenty-five “ Degrees, East, until it strikes the Otta-
 “ was River, to ascend the said River into
 “ the Lake Tomiscanning, and from the Head
 “ of the said Lake by a Line drawn due “ North until it strikes the boundary Line of “ Hudson's Bay, including all the Territory
 “ to the Westward and Southward of the “ said Line to the utmost Extent of the “ Country commonly called or known by
 “ the Name of Canada.”
