

Contents.

	PAGE
CHAP. I.—Temperature of the Climate—Root Dig- gers on Horseback—An Indian Guide— Mountain Prospects—The Grand Rond—Diffi- culties on Snake River—A Scramble over the Blue Mountains—Suffering from Hunger— Prospect of the Immahah Valley—The Ex- hausted Traveller . . . . .	I
CHAP. II.—Progress in the Valley—An Indian Cavalier—The Captain Falls into a Lethargy —A Nez Percé Patriarch—Hospitable Treat- ment—The Bald Head—Bargaining—Value of an Old Plaid Cloak—The Family Horse—The Cost of an Indian Present . . . . .	14
CHAP. III.—Nez Percé Camp—A Chief with a Hard Name—The Big Hearts of the East— Hospitable Treatment—The Indian Guides— Mysterious Councils—The Loquacious Chief —Indian Tomb—Grand Indian Reception— An Indian Feast—Town Criers—Honesty of the Nez Percés—The Captain's Attempt at Healing . . . . .	25
CHAP. IV.—Scenery of the Way-lee-way—A Sub- stitute for Tobacco—Sublime Scenery of Snake	