

Iroquois.—Treachery of Kondiaronk.—The Governor's account of the deplorable state of the Colony.—De Callières.—Massacre of Iachine.—Frontenac re-appointed Governor of New France (A. D. 1665-1689).....	109
--	-----

CHAPTER TWENTY-FIRST.

Frontenac Governor a second time.—Measures for restoring the fortunes of the Colony.—“La petite guerre.”—Siege of Quebec in 1690.—Expedition against the Iroquois in 1696.—Death of Frontenac.—De Callière, Governor. (A. D. 1689-1703).....	125
--	-----

CHAPTER TWENTY-SECOND.

The affairs of the Colony under De Vaudreuil, De Beauharnois, Galissonnière and Duquesne.—Annapolis.—Admiral Walker.—Population and Progress.—Strength of the New England Colonies.—Cap Breton.—Halifax founded in 1749.—Discoveries.—Admiral Warren.—Chains of forts.—Militia.—Washington and Jumonville. (A. D. 1703-1754).....	131
---	-----

CHAPTER TWENTY-THIRD.

Wars and Treaties between France and England relating to America.—Treaty of Ryswick in 1697.—Peace until 1702.—War until 1713.—Treaty of Utrecht in 1713.—Peace until 1744.—War until 1748.—Treaty of Aix-la-Chapelle in 1748.—Actual position of the Colonists in regard to each other in 1754. (A. D. 1697-1754).....	143
---	-----

CHAPTER TWENTY-FOURTH.

France and England send out troops to aid their respective Colonies.—Expeditions against Canada.—Acadia and the Acadians.—Dieskau and Johnson at Lake George.—Braddock's defeat on the Monongahela.—Shirley.—“La Petite guerre.”—War declared in Europe.—Lord Loudon succeeds Braddock.—Montcalm and his Officers.—De Vaudreuil.—Bigot.—Bad condition of the Colony of New France. (A. D. 1754-1756).....	147
---	-----

CHAPTER TWENTY-FIFTH.

Campaign of 1756.—Chouagen (Oswego) taken.—Campaign of 1757.—Louisbourg menaced.—Capture of Fort William Henry.—Massacre.—Wm. Pitt, English Minister.—Campaign of 1758.—Louisbourg taken.—Fort Duquesne taken.—Bloody Battle of Carillon.—Fort Frontenac taken.—Plans for the campaign of 1759. (A. D. 1756-1759).....	155
--	-----