

A continuous open front house. The nests are below the opening at front and broody coops above. It is a bad factor for broody hens as well as eggs.