

At the period when most of us were withdrawn from your care, we received your parting benediction, and your paternal counsels for our guidance in life, expressed in terms which made a lasting impression. Now that so many years have intervened, and years so full of eventful changes, it must, we are persuaded, be a source of much pleasure to a person of your benevolent and friendly disposition, to find that Providence has spared so many of those whose character you laboured to form, and has blessed them very generally with health and prosperity.

On our parts we beg to assure you that we can scarcely call to mind an occasion in all the years that have past, which has given rise to stronger feelings of satisfaction than we experience at this moment in delivering into your hands a memorial of our long cherished affection and respect.

Presented at York, Upper Canada, July 2, 1833.
