MISSIONARY DAY WAS CELEBRATED

Addresses Given in Toronto Churches in Connection With Laymen's Missionary Movement.

Missionary day was largely observed in the Toronto Methodist Churches yesterday in response to a request from the secretaries—Rev. T. E. Shore, Rev. James Allen and Rev. C. E. Manning. This topic has been prominent in the services of the denomination throughout the month in connection with the new objective for Toronto Methodist of 1912.

Berbert K. Caskey, general secretary of the Laymen's Movement for Missionary spoke at Westminster-avenue Church in the morning, and at Trinity Methodist in the evening. He pointed out that since the laymen had organized to place the evangelization of the heathen lands on a business basis the contributions had increased over a hundred per cent. There was no idea during the present year of introducing changes in methods. The effort would be to extend the system adopted by the laymen's movement to every congregation and to endeavor thru local agencies such as had been in operation the past few weeks in this city to deepen the interest of the men, women and children of the churches in the worldwide task.

Rev. A. Warburton, general secretary of the Y.M.C.A., gave an inspiring address at St. Paul's Methodist Church at the morning service. The mission field, especially in foreign lands, he said, was attracting as never before the sympathy and widespread interest of the young men and women of the churches, and appealed to their spirit of heroism, and afforded now, that the doors everywhere were swinging open to the messengers of the gospel opportunities for evangelism far greater than even a decade ago. This was true in Africa, China and Japan. The enthusiasm of the young people was furnishing the volunteers for mission service. It was for the main body of the church at home to see that they received adequate spiritual and material support.

Work Among Canadian Indians. Rev. James Allen, general secretary of the Methodist Home Mission Board, described the many features of work among the foreign settlers and Indians in Canada in his address at Wesleyan Methodist Church in the morning and at Carlton street at night.

Mr. Justice MacLaren gave an impressive address at Carlton-street Church yesterday morning, especially commending the plans of the laymen's movement.

Rev. N. L. Bowles of China described the progress of events in the Celestial Empire in his addresses at College-street church in the afternoon, and at Sherburne-street at night. He was confident that the reorganization of the government of China would be of vast benefit to the mission cause. Geo. Quarrington gave a missionary address at College-street Methodist Church at the evening service.

Rev. Joseph Odery, pastor, and Dr. Arthur Methodist secretary of laymen's missions, were the preachers at the Timothy Eaton Methodist Memorial Church.

MINISTERS TALK OUT OF PLACE

Statement That Temperance People Are "Working" the Sunday Schools Denied By J. S. Robertson.

"If I were disposed to be critical, I would say that remark of the Rev. Dr. Ferguson of Philadelphia, that the temperance people are 'working' the Sunday schools, is somewhat out of place," declared J. S. Robertson at the meeting of the Canadian Temperance League in Massey Hall yesterday afternoon. "Dr. Ferguson may be conversant with conditions in the States," he continued, "but what is said of the Sunday schools being 'worked' by temperance advocates and missionaries does not apply here. I believe that if there is a work in temperance methods as compared with twenty years ago, it is in the fact that we are not getting after the children of the present are not being brought up with same strong views on temperance."

Yesterday was students' day at the meeting of the league and there was a good attendance of students from the Toronto universities and colleges. The principal addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. Kilpatrick, Knox College; G. A. Clarke, McMaster University; H. L. Roberts, Victoria; and Joseph Wearing of Osgoode Hall. Devotional exercises were conducted by W. J. D. Peter, Wycliffe College, while excellent musical selections were rendered by the Misses E. M. Shaw, Helena Dempsey and Lillian Lumbers.

TURKS WERE REPULSED

Attack on Italian Position at Chir-garish Ended in Failure.

TRIPOLI, Jan. 28.—(Can. Press.)—The Turkish forces yesterday renewed the movement against Ghir-garish, the small oasis about twelve miles from Tripoli, which has been the scene recently of numerous engagements between the Turks and Italians, and at the same time another force of 2000 Turks and Arabs delivered a determined attack on Ainara, some miles inland.

The fierce Italian artillery fire, however, compelled the assaulting forces to fall back towards the south and southwest. The Italian casualties numbered two killed and eight wounded.

ITALIAN MURDERER CAUGHT.

SAULT STE MARIE, Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Giuseppe Nardoni, the man who shot Mike Pappas here a week ago to-day, was arrested by Chief of Police Vincent, near Little Italy, at 8.30 o'clock last night.

During the past few days the authorities have impressed upon Italians the nature of the crime of harboring a murderer and it is believed that the parties who had him in hiding at length insisted that he take his own chance. The man seems remorseful but does not seem to realize the enormity of his act. He admits that he did the shooting.

CLERGYMEN OPEN MART

Crusade Against High Prices of Vegetables in New York Provides Novel Spectacle.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—(Can. Press.)—War on high prices for vegetables for the poor of New York, fashioned after the campaign of Mayor Shank of Indianapolis, was begun to-day with the opening by a committee of clergymen and others of the first of what is proposed to be a series of sales places where products of the soil will be transferred from producer to consumer without a middleman's intervention.

Customers who flocked to the big room in which quantities of carrots, potatoes, cabbage, beets, turnips and other vegetables were stacked, quickly emptied it of its contents. The stock cost $27 and sold for $27.48. The man in charge gave two boys half a dollar for cleaning up, so there was no profit.

An old woman who keeps a grocery store across the way from the first station, offered to weigh the goods sold by the new station, and denounced the innovation as destined to hurt her business, while not benefiting purchasers.

FAMILY LIFE IS CHANGING

Present Civilization Disrupting Home, Says Prof. Matthews of Chicago.

"The drift of much of our civilization to-day is against the family. The industrialization of women, the mad rush for amusement have this effect. The family is rapidly changing, and a nation cannot rise higher than its homes. This was the warning sounded by Prof. Shailer Matthews of Chicago, in his sermon at Convocation Hall Sunday morning. The only antidote, he went on to say, is God. The revival of religion in the family was, and had always been, the only unifying force and family unit was necessary to the state were to survive.
