SUTHERLAND FIGHTS TO LAST FOR ONE MISSION HEAD GETS MANY THIRSTS

Report of Committee on Division of Work Carried After Spirited Debate—Church Union Goes Over Till Next Week.

Montreal, Sept. 20.—(Special.)—Engaged in a life and death struggle and fighting like the old grey wolf in the jungle, the general secretary of missions, had not the wisdom to acquiesce in the inevitable to-day, but stubbornly bore himself up against all opposition and displayed every intention of dying hard.

After two hours' discussion to-night in committee, an agreement was arrived at. Dr. Sutherland's position of executive authority in the mission work, the inference was obvious to all.

Mr. Rowell, K.C., who spoke in an admirably conciliatory spirit at the previous day's session, drew his rapier to-day and passed it again and again through the corpus.

Dr. Sutherland's position of executive authority in the mission work, the inference was obvious to all.

Dr. Sutherland suggested that the conference affirm the principle of one fund, one board and one policy.

Dr. Sutherland would have seconded the committee's proposals. The church discipline required policy in all its departments thru the boards of the church.

Dr. Sutherland said he had some of those who had spoken in their minds for the last year or so taken him into their confidence, but they had not so honored him.

HEALEY'S FALLS PROBABLY JUST DUE TO THE HEAT

Premier Whitney Ascribes the Criticisms to the "Silly Season"—Government's Power Policy Has Not Changed and Will Not.

The first minister of Ontario lacks two traits that are some times found in the rulers of the world—he is not a good listener and he does not give an impression of reserve force, no matter how much he may have.

In his opinion all the criticisms of the power policy of the Ontario government are to be attributed to the "silly season."

"But the Healey's Falls—'Oh, that was the silliest nonsense of all,' said Mr. Whitney explosively; 'abolish it! They say that the government fixes the rates instead of the hydro-electric commission. What is the difference? Let the hydro-electric commission the government!'"

"Not exactly," the reporter thought. "They're not? With two members of the cabinet on the commission and the third member an engineer? Then, I have nothing more to say!"

"But the government is above the commission—'It might ignore it. But they won't. And if they did the hydro-electric commission would resign.'"

"Wanted by the People." "Take these leases did any company ask for them? No, it was the request of municipalities. And just because the little words 'hydro-electric commission' are omitted, the globe and other papers try to terrify the people. They say: 'Look out! Something is going to happen. The Whitney government is going back on its power policy.'"

"But will there be any recession from the policy as first announced?" "That is to say, are the cabinet ministers a pack of scoundrels?"

"Oh, no men may change their minds, revised their judgments." "Haven't changed, and won't." "But they must announce the change if they do, and appeal to the people. Our power policy is not changed one jot or tittle."

"But the Globe says that the Liberal party is the friend of municipal ownership." "That is to say, are the cabinet ministers a pack of scoundrels?"

"Now, now," said the first minister impatiently, "I am not discussing municipal ownership or any other ownership. I say that our power policy is unchanged."

"I don't believe that anything of the kind was published," said Mr. Whitney impulsively, "but I have been away, and you may be right. But do I conceal their columns?"

FINANCING UNION TRUST I. O. F. MADE SACRIFICES

Reasons and Methods of Organization Give Into Engagement of Mr. Foster.

Dominion Examiner Shepley yesterday reached the stage in the examination of the I. O. F. where the Union Trust Company and Hon. George E. Foster and Hon. G. W. Ross appear on the scene.

The origin and composition of the Union Trust Company was closely investigated and will be further probed this morning.

Dr. Gronhyatka agreed that the Australian expenses were enormous, but submitted a comparison statement that the average cost of insurance in that country was 72.15 for I.O.F. policies as against 137.83 for the leading old time companies.

Mr. Shepley went into details in connection with the retrenchment policy. He concluded that there is not so much a retrenchment as shifting of outlay. The salaries were decreased, but the commission and bonuses were increased.

Mr. Shepley read the items of expense for legal services for 10 years from 1888 to 1905 as follows:—In 1888, $4673.18; 1889, $5,441.18; 1890, $5,500.18; 1891, $13,500.18; 1892, $15,800.18; 1893, $18,850.18; 1894, $22,200.18; 1895, $22,200.18.
