Five Horses and a Dog Died From the Heat-Police and Other

Hamilton,June 30 .- (Special.)-Two horses died while at work unloading a vessel at McKay's wharf yesterday afternoon. Heat boarding house, Ferguson-avenue, last evening. During the night he departed, was the cause of death.

A horse belonging to J. Crawford, brickmaker, had a sunstroke on King-street yes terday afternoon, and had to be killed.

A black dog went mad at the corner of Cannon and James-streets. P.C. Campaign put six bullets into it, but failed to kill it. With the six pleces of lead in its body it ran up a flight of stairs and jumped from a window to the street. Officer Nichol of the S.P.C.A. dashed up with an ammunition wagon, and killed the dog.

Two horses died in harness from the heat.

During the night he departed, taking a sliver watch with him.

At the Police Court yesterday William Grieve, a patent medicine man, was tried on the charge of being insane, on complaint of his wife. The magistrate concluded it was more bad temper than inscharged him. Mrs. Grieve immediately had her hubby arrested on a charge of its industrial conflicts ever known in this country.

John Kelly, Buffalo, was committed for trial on a charge of stealing a coat from George Smith.

Moses Bacon, a rag peddler, was found guilty of stealing a boller belonging to heat.

A Short-Lived Strike.

There was a short-lived strike on the Hamilton, Grimsby and Beamsville Electric Railway yesterday. The conductors and motormen, about 15 or 16 in number, went on strike for higher pay. They had been receiving 12 cents an hour, and asked for 14 cents, with pay for the time lost while waiting at Beamsville to bring the cars back to the city. The men threatened north, was dismissed.

Moses Bacon, a rag peddler, was found guilty of stealing a boiler belonging to J. P. Mullen of the Victoria Hotel. He was remanded till Tuesday for sentence. John Fletcher, Tenderloin-terrace, Bold-street, was committed for trial on a charge of stealing a hand-cart belonging to William Gadd, a second-hand dealer. The charge of cruelty to a dog, preferred by the inspector of the S. P. C. A., against John Martin of MacNab-street north, was dismissed.
