TO THE TRADE

In sympathy with other cotton goods, the price had to be advanced, but not to the same extent that the cotton market would warrant. We have other Prints that have been reduced in quality to meet a popular price, that are greatly inferior to CRUM'S. To the consumer CRUM'S PRINTS are better value at 15c than our other Prints are at 12 1-2. Two big shipments of CRUM'S PRINTS just received. FILLING LETTERS ORDERS & SPECIALTY

Put Poison in Candy and Fed It Companion.

ST. CATHARINES, Jan. 17 .- (Special.)-A peculiar case has been reported from Beamsville. A young lad named Kerr is said to have gone to No Dr. Fairfield's drug store and asked for five cents worth of Spanish fly blister. The doctor told him it was poison and asked what he wanted it for. The boy said his father wanted to blister a horse and the sale was completed. The boy then went to Tufford's livery, where he found some companions one of whom had a quantity of choco lates. Kerr took some of the candy and placed some of the fly blister inside and gave it to Gordon Russell, who knew nothing of what had been done. Russell was taken ill, and it was with difficulty that he was revived. Russell will not lay any in-formation, but the county police have TORONTO, CAN. the matter in hand.
