strengin Boston and vicinity, of their own accord, and without solicitation, have very kindly proposed it osupply his pulpit, during an absence of about four mentle. Such generous arrangements have also been made by a few of his fellow-citizens, chiefly out of the Enpits denomination, as to furnish substantial testimony of the high regard and reastern in which he is held by those among whom ke has resided more than thirty years. His church and society have ununimously and cordially consented to the proposal, and he will now, after an absence of forty years, revisit the land of his nativity and the home of his youth. Such acts of spontaneous kindness must be highly pleasing to his friends, and were never more worthily bestowed. -Boston C. ristian Walchanan.

From the Fredericton Logalist, April 10.

The following is the Address from the Inhabitants of the County of Gloucester to Sir Wm. Yolebrooke. This address is the one to which we referred last week, our informant having mistaken Gloucester for Restigouche, and the number 1200 for 2000. However, we are credibly informed that a similar Address is now on its way from Restigouche.

To His Excellency Lieutenant Colonel Sir Wil-itys McBern George Colebrooke, K. H. Lieutenant Governor and Commander in-Chief of the Province of New-Branssick, Sc. Sc. Sc. May be please Your Excellency, we the undersigned, Inimbitants of the County of Gloucester, most respectfully approach Your Excellency with renewed assurances of that attachment and veneration for our beloved Queen and the Glorious Constitution under which we live, which have ever distinguished us. We cannot therefore, but view with regret the differences which have undapper arisen between Your Excellency and the oppular branch of the Logislature, and the disregard which Your Excellency is administration of the base of Assambly has been advised to pay to the opinions, feelings, and judgment of that body.

In the recent struggle in which the House of Gloucester. Accept my acknow of the people, contending for a Constitutional right, a right which has been conceded to the people of these Colonies by a beneficent Sovereign, during an Administration composed of one party in the State, and subsequently retified and confirmed by an Administration of an opposite party, holding in other respects very different views from their predecessors on questions of National Policy.

Regarding then this right that the Government of the Colonies should be carried on according to the understood wishes of the people as expressed by their Representatives, as one bestowed upon the people of this Province unsolicited, and recognized by Imperial Statesmen of all parties, we hambly conceive it should not be lightly esteemed nor be permitted to be invaded in silence; and we desiring to advance my testification for such that the flower of Assembly in their efforts to defend in the very constitutional means in our power.

We further begins the respectively to state that
