

Canadians in Greater Number In Casualty Lists

All Battalions of Both Divisions Now at Firing Line - Explosion of Mine Opposite Canadian Lines

Ottawa, Oct. 15.—Growing lists of casualties from the front indicate that the Canadian divisions are doing their bit in the advance movement of the allied forces. In the overnight list there were twenty dead and twenty-three wounded. In a recent report of a witness, mention was made of the explosion of a mine by the Germans opposite the Canadian lines, and casualties which have been coming in since have told the tale of this explosion. About fifty have been reported killed, though all did not lose their lives from this cause.

THOMAS BREAKS JAIL

Wm. M. Thomas, aged about twenty-four, made his escape from the county jail last night by successfully picking a lock on one of the doors. He had been in jail awaiting to be taken to Dorchester to begin a five year sentence, his conviction following a charge made by a Carleton girl, and was in soldier's uniform. He left his military clothes, and took those of his cell-mate, Albert Dalgle. He succeeded in picking the lock on his cell and then had to pick the lock on the steel barred door leading from the corridor bordering thereon. He had another steel barred gate presented itself, but this was open, and the turkey being in the basement, about nine o'clock, Thomas made his way through his office and lowered himself from a window to the steps of the court house. He went on his way, effecting a remarkable escape. Thomas had not been recaptured until 8 o'clock this afternoon.

WAR NOTES

Reports that a serious epidemic of cholera is raging at Kiel, in Germany, are denied. General Hughes is to speak in Ottawa next week on the important announcements are expected. Four Zeppelins, which are believed to have participated in the raid over the London area on Wednesday night, were sighted, homeward bound, over Holland yesterday. Casualties of the Australian contingents at the Dardanelles up to Oct. 9, were 29,251.

WOUNDED MEMBER OF 25TH WAS MANAGER OF TELEGRAPHY SCHOOL

George Blair Finnigan, of the 25th Battalion, who was reported in the morning casualty list as wounded and whose place of residence was given as St. Andrews, was a resident of St. John the Island he enlisted. He was born at Briar Island, N. S., and removed with his family several years ago to St. Andrews where his father, George B. Finnigan, now resides. The young man was a telegraph operator and had taken over the management of the C. P. R. school of telegraphy in St. John some time before he was broken out and gave up this profitable business to enlist.

AUSTRALIA LEADS IN CONTRIBUTIONS FOR BELGIAN RELIEF

London, Oct. 15.—The Lord Mayor announced at the Mansion House that the fund of the National Committee for the Relief of Belgium had reached £1,000,000. The committee was formed in April to assist the American Commission. Of that amount £700,000 was contributed from overseas, Australia leading the way. As the cost of feeding the people of Belgium is more than $200,000 weekly a meeting was called for the purpose of pledging the City of London to systematically support the National Fund. Earl Curzon and Sir John Simon made eloquent speeches, reiterating Belgium's heroism, and need and the Allies' obligation to her. The treatment of Belgium by the Germans, said Lord Curzon, was without exception the greatest crime in history. Sir John Simon declared that it was Belgium's stand which united Great Britain in its determination to fight.

GETTING BETTER

The condition of Harry Hyslop, who was seriously injured recently in T. S. Simms & Company's store, is considerably improved, according to the latest report from the hospital. Found dead in Bath Tub Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 15.—Andrew Radek, known throughout New England as an oyster dealer, and former head of the Connecticut Railway and Lighting Company, was found dead in the bath tub at his home here today.

It is also evident that this week Canadian artillery have suffered from similar causes, eight men in the fifth brigade being wiped out. Meanwhile sniping is going on systematically. All of the first and second divisions, are now right up in the firing lines. The aggregate casualties to date is upwards of 10,000, divided roughly into three thousand dead, six thousand, five hundred wounded, and a thousand, five hundred missing or known to be prisoners of war.

THE ADVANCE IN IRON AND STEEL

Last autumn the iron and steel trade of the country was so poor and the outlook so bleak that the United States Steel Corporation could not earn much more than the full interest on its bonds, so saying nothing of dividends on some $70,000,000 of stock. So it first reduced and then passed the common stock dividend. For the three months ending September 30, this year, it has earned four times as much as it did in the December quarter, and its present revenues indicate a most profitable return before the end of 1915. In August, pig iron production in the United States was at the rate of 85,000,000 tons per annum, compared with 18,000,000 tons in January, eight months ago the iron and steel mills of the country were running at about 40 per cent of capacity, and now at nearly 90 per cent. With this increased production has come a rise in prices. For instance, last September pig iron ranged from $14.00 to $14.50 a ton, and now it is $16 to $17—an advance of about 14 per cent. Billets that were $21.00 a ton are now $23.00 to $24.00. Wire rods were $20.00 and today $23.00. Steel bars and steel plates are up 12 to 15 per cent, and steel scrap and iron nails, which were unsaleable at $13 to $14 per ton, are quickly marketed at $14.00 to $15.50 a ton. The payrolls in Pittsburgh, Pa., Youngstown, Ohio, and Chicago districts are the largest in the history of the steel industry. The recovery in iron and steel has meant an enormous amount to all related industries. One is moving toward the lakes in quantities never before approached. The coal fields of Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Maryland, and Kentucky are producing in excess of the carrying capacity of the railroads entering the district. This means a great advantage every distributor of merchandise, every power plant, traction line, and bank in the neighborhood. It takes the corner grocery store a long time to feel the effect of full employment following a period of complete or partial industrial paralysis, and even longer is the railroad in noticing the benefits of a rising price in notching the benefits among wage-earners. This change was visible in the end in June, and three months later has begun to spread to nearly every part of the Eastern States.—From "American Business Transactions by the War," by Charles F. Spear, in the American Review of Reviews for October.

FAMED STRONG MAN DYING

Captain American, winner of many medals, victim of paralysis. One of the strongest men the world has ever known, Captain American, is dying in the City Hospital of Nashville, Tenn. Capt. Anderson or J. L. Taylor, sustained a stroke of paralysis on February 19, 1914, while playing his rounds at Charleston, S. C. Since then the physical culture king, as he is generally known, has been taken to many sanitariums and springs by his wife, and on August 5 he was taken to Nashville. They were in Lewisburg, Tenn., where Taylor was making a living. Mrs. Taylor telling fortune by palmistry. The captain was unable to rise from his bed, which was in a tent in which his wife was taking out an existence for both. Mr. Taylor has a book in which are many press notices and recommendations to show managers and his students. One of these clippings tells of Captain American winning the gold medal at the St. Louis Exposition in 1904 for being the champion strong man of the world. Captain American at one time was professor in the College of Physical Culture and Manual Therapeutics of Chicago. After leaving that institution he gave short courses in many towns in the south and west on physical culture. While in Nashville the captain broke quarter inch chains with one hand, tore one deck of playcards into sixteen pieces without removing the wrapper, tore a deck of playing cards with two sockets of iron placed between the cards, bent and broke any iron or steel spike of any proportion size with his hands and bent three-quarters inch bars of iron by striking them with his bare arms. When in the height of his strength, he allowed 8,000 pound automobiles to be drawn across his stomach. He was able to do this because he was so bound with interlocking muscles. Officials of the city hospital said that there was no probability that Captain Taylor would recover. They said that his stroke of paralysis has been coming on him for many years, but that they could not tell as yet what was the cause.

Federicton Recruits

Six recruits were enrolled in Fredericton for the 88th Battalion Thursday. Five of the recruits enlisted that afternoon and were sworn in by Recruiting Officer J. J. McCreary. They are Herbert Creed and Fred Garnett, of Fredericton; George W. Banks, of Durham Bridge; Walton Clegg, of Maryville, and John Hubble, of Oromocto. The sixth recruit of the day was Murray Finlay, who enlisted Wednesday morning. Mr. Creed is a member of the Bank of Nova Scotia staff in that city and a son of Frank Creed.
