General Mackenzie a Visitor to Camp at Aldershot-Maritime Girl Weds Drury Lane Official—New Zealand Steamer Line Service May Include Canada

Times' Special Cable London, Aug. 29.—The Queen's Own Rifles are now in camp at Aldershot. The Express says the visit of Canada's crack regiment is an event of real imperial significance. It assures the Queen's Own the warmest welcome.

The Standard regards the event as a further step towards the federation for purpose of defence whereon the future security of the empire must depend. It says that the Canadians are born soldiers, that Paardeberg proved they required only some additional training to become the equal of any soldiers in the world.

A drumhead service was held on Sunday morning in the camp. Several hundred visitors were present. General Colin Mackenzie later talked with Col. Pellatt regarding the training of the regiment for the coming week. Beyond a few route marches and battalion drill nothing is yet settled on.

The men are delighted with the cordiality of their reception and quite pleased with the arrangement of the camp. The only hitch occurred in Liverpool where the customs officers examined all the baggage, causing a delay. Considerable duty was demanded on some stores.

At H. Court, formerly of Canada Illustrated, has been appointed London manager of the Dominion Trust Company.

There was a good undertone in the business and everything changed hands at the following prices:—Canadian cattle from 13-14 to 14 cents; ranch cattle from 11-12 to 12-14 cents a pound.

The board of agriculture's order in connection with the outbreak of cattle disease in Yorkshire has been revoked. The Church of England bicentenary in Halifax is the subject of two articles by Rev. C. W. Vernon in the "Guardian," and the "Treasury."

In the course of another interview, Sir James Whitney says: "I hope I am wrong in expressing a fear that there are people in Britain whose first object is to maintain free trade and not the empire."

WORK OF THE SCHOOLS RESUMED

Good Attendance at Opening Day of the City Classes MORE THAN 500 NEW

Possible That Grade XII Will be Continued, Judging From Outlook Today—Some Changes in the Teaching Staff After Holidays

With the attendance well up to the standard, few changes in the teaching staff, and every one of the staff present, the public schools of the city reopened this morning after the summer vacation. Today there was room in every school for all the pupils to be admitted, but many more will be coming in for sometime, and there may be a little over-crowding in some of the buildings.

Up to the present the number of permits for primary entrance totalled above the 500 mark, with Winter street in the lead, but it is probable that the figures will be increased in the next few days, as the people return from their summer homes.

Supt. Bridges said this morning that it was possible that grade XII would be continued this year, as the number in grade III was no greater than last year, so that there would be accommodation for those who wished to attend. All the grades 9 were filled this morning.

More changes than the following may be recorded today in the teaching staff, but up to the present the only transfers have been: W. H. Parlee resigning his position as principal of Victoria school, S. H. Warrill, returning to the High School, grade IX and J. F. Shea, taking K-Take in add scholar.

Speaking in the cathedral yesterday morning, His Lordship Bishop Casey announced the re-opening of the schools and urged upon parents and guardians the responsibility of seeing that the children attended, and on time.

There are now 125 chapters in Canada, besides members in the West Indies and among the British born women in the United States.

LOEB AFTER DUTY ON EXPENSIVE VIOLINS New York, Aug. 29.—Collector William Loeb, Jr., has learned of a new method to defraud the government of customs duties. Information has been laid before him showing that in the last fifteen years fully 50 violins brought to this country by virtuosos as "tools of trade" and admitted duty free, have since been sold at prices ranging from $1,500 to $10,000 apiece.

The customs duty on violins is 45 per cent ad valorem, and the collector estimates that the loss to the government will approximate $60,000. He has hopes through the catalogue of well known instruments, which are everywhere kept by dealers, of tracing most of the instruments recently imported.

FIRST PICTURE OF THE RUINS OF BRUSSELS WORLD'S EXHIBITION AFTER THE CONFLAGERATION

BACK FROM THE DEAD

Chicago, Aug. 29.—There is joy in the home of George Jagemann, where gloom reigned a few hours ago, for Miss Lena Jagemann, the daughter who had been mourned as one of the victims of the Grand Trunk wreck, near Detroit, Mich., is on her way to Chicago to assure her parents that she is alive.

So impossible did it seem that the young woman was still alive after her father had gone to Detroit and identified the body of one of the dead as that of his daughter, that the first telegram from Toronto, in which Miss Jagemann said she had escaped injury did not reassure the parents, and yesterday two more messages came from her in reply to the anxious inquiries and the last one announced that she would follow immediately thereafter.

He is playing football with the Argyle, running under the colors of the Nomads, and playing cricket with the Buffalo Cricket Club.

The government proposes to push the construction of the railway, having received indications that in addition to the possibilities for the fishing industry there are evidences of a deposit of coal and copper which would be exploitable. The reports will be fully investigated.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier will meet an international delegation from Portland and Spokane, the chambers of commerce and boards of trade of East and West Kootenay, urging the opening up of the Columbia river to navigation between West Robson and the international boundary. The premier will also address a gathering of school children on the water front, and will be met by a large number of people at a night mass meeting Sunday.

A FLORAL OFFERING. The Times new reporter received this morning a large bouquet of dahlias, asters and other bloomers, as a token of regard from the residents of Mount Pleasant. He has staid away from that locality all summer, and such consideration on the part of a reporter, in the words of the deputization, "is as rare as it is delightful." At the same time, the deputization added, if he would go up some time and say a word about the bad behaviour of thoughtless youths passing that way on Sunday, the intrusion might be pardoned—for once.
