A SURPRISE FOR AUTOISTS

Forget that hamper for the autoing trip or excursion. Drop those little frowns and anticipation of half a day's labor. It isn't necessary, so to speak.

The delicatessen service of the College Inn, now under the capable direction of Miss Simpson, can probably eliminate more of your worries than any single contributory to your outing.

ADITORIAL

Any fool can talk sense—most wisdom is in a jest.

And notable events in better values are appearing in this column daily.

"So you're acquainted with Gertrude?"
Swimming Instructor: "Barely."

69 cents still entitles you to some big items in ladies' hose—worth wearing.

In nineteen hundred, fifty, the ever-present fact will probably be bullets like mother used to make.

Does this sound like old-time advertising? Volle, Silke and Gertrude Waits, $1.19 to $6.50?

Mother was heard to say, recently: "If anyone wants the sea this week they can have it now."

C. J. Bessen's two great dry goods stores are conveniently ready to serve you. Footwear and clothing for all the family. Sydney, corner Union—also Brussels near glimmer.

Ask someone how to pronounce h-u-r-k-e and j-o-k-e. Then suggest the white of an egg. See if they know anything about hen-fruit. Watch for us tomorrow.
