NEW BRUNSWICK BIBLE SOCIETY

Fredericton, Jan. 6.—The annual meeting of the New Brunswick Bible Society was held in this city this afternoon with Judge Forbes, of St. John, a veteran of thirty-three years, who has given much of his time to the work of the society, presiding.

The meetings were held in the Fraser Memorial Hall and were well attended. This evening a presentation was made by Judge Forbes to C. A. Sampson, of this city, who has given forty-four consecutive years as secretary of the Fredericton branch of the society. The presentation was followed by a comprehensive survey of the year's work by Major (Rev.) F. S. Porter, field secretary of the society. He also presented the financial report, which showed the contributions from the provincial societies amounting to $10,000. Rev. Mr. Porter was followed by two excellent addresses delivered by Canon Armstrong, rector of Trinity church, St. John, and Dr. C. C. Jones, chancellor of the University of New Brunswick.

The summary of the treasurer's report presented by R. T. Hayes, of St. John, follows: Contributions to society from provincial branches, $10,000; request from Miss Eliza Patterson, $500; sales by collectors, $2,500; Disbursements: Free gifts to British and Foreign Bible Societies, $7,040; purchases for depositary, $3,580; colportage, $1,810.

A. A. U. of C., signed by A. W. Covey, president, and F. J. Pougnet, secretary-treasurer, to the effect that all players who participated in the hockey game at Moncton on Tuesday evening last, in the so-called independent amateur league, had been professionalized. All amateur athletes are warned not to play with or against these players. A list of the players will be published in the near future, as it has been reported that some of them played under assumed names.
