FORMAL OPENING OF EXHIBITION

Plans For Tomorrow Evening—A Glance at the Various Departments

The St. John exhibition of 1914 will open on Saturday evening with formal exercises in the large amusement hall. All the preparations for the big entries well advanced and those who visit the grounds tomorrow evening will find the exhibition in nearly complete shape.

In the main building the exhibits are unusually attractive. Many of the permanent structures have been allowed to remain and others of pleasing design have been added. Among the new entries is that of the Corona Company, Ltd., local candy manufacturers, and there are several new exhibitors from other provinces, the new booths numbering twenty-five or thirty.

The management has made an effort to provide more extensive decorations and better illuminating effects than ever before and the scene, especially at night time, will present a most attractive picture. W. L. R., who has just returned from the Toronto exhibition, has complimented the management on their success and says in respect to quality, the display will compare favorably with the big fair of the Queen City.

There will be an unusually good display of live stock. J. F. Frost, of Hampton, superintendent of this department, reported this morning and again took charge of the live stock end of the exhibition.

W. D. Golding also arrived this morning to assume charge of the poultry department for which the number of entries has been largely in excess of expectations.

Under the management of L. C. Daigle of the provincial agricultural department it is expected that the dairy department will repeat the success of other years. The butter and cheese entries are exceptionally heavy and include one from Alberta.

The dog show promises to be an exceptionally good one. There will be an elaborate display of fireworks on every fine night next week and Richard Burden, representing the P. W. Hunt Company, who is supervising the fireworks, has made it his business to get the best advantage.

The art department also promises to be of exceptional interest and the many works of art which have been sent in are being hung to the best advantage. On the same floor will be found the extensive educational exhibit in charge of William McLaughlin, which will repay close study.

The midway will be conducted on a new basis this year and will be of a higher type although fully as amusing and interesting as ever. Henry Bentum, representing Henry Meyerhoff, who is supervising the attractions, arrived in the city this morning and is preparing amusement features of many different kinds.

At the formal opening tomorrow evening addresses will be given by Lieutenant Governor Wood, Acting Premier Hon. George Clarke, Hon. J. A. Wilson and Mayor Frank.

The Best Quality at a Reasonable Price

A Square Deal For Your Eyes

You use your eyes constantly all the time you are awake. You use your teeth probably two hours out of the 24.

But you care for your teeth twice daily and have an expert examine them at least once a year, and neglect your hard working eyes. Not until you are forced to do you give your eyes any attention.

Now that isn't a square deal. It is not ordinary common sense. You ought to have the expert watch your eyes as well as your teeth. You ought to give them the attention he tells you to give.

Thoughts About Pleasure Pleasure used in rightful moderation is a tonic, cheering us up so that we may face our daily trials with fresh strength. But excessive devotion to pleasure is a deadly, clogging weed, which robs us of our best qualities and makes us useless weeds ourselves. Pleasure at another's expense is a mighty accurate kind of boomerang. It is going to come back and hit—hard. The only kind of pleasure of which one can never tire is that of giving to others. The old maxim about "Business first" is not dead yet, by a long chalk. No decent man or woman can have a thorough enjoyment of pleasure while many tasks are shouting to be done. Half the misery of the foolish comes from confusing happiness with that very shoddy imitative gaiety. 'Tis a false religion that condemns all pleasure. The abuse, and not the use of it, is wrong.—Scottish-American.

At the Picnic An eight-year-old boy went to a church picnic and, being a favorite with the ladies, had been liberally supplied with the good things to eat. Later in the day one of the ladies noticed the boy sitting near a stream with a woe-begone expression on his face and his hands clasped over his stomach. "Why, what's the matter, Willie?" she very kindly asked. "Haven't you had enough to eat?" "Oh, yes'm," said the boy. "I've had enough. But I feel as though I don't want all I've got."

Loyalty of India To Great Britain

Referring to the loyalty of India to Great Britain, the Marquis of Crewe said: "It has been deeply impressed on the government that the wonderful wave of enthusiasm and loyalty at the present time passing over India is largely due to the desire of the Indian people that Indian soldiers should stand side by side with their comrades in the British army."

WAR NOTES

Two German aeroplanes which were over Paris on Wednesday were brought down and their occupants killed in the fall. Slav troops in the Austrian army are reported insubordinate and in some regiments mutiny is feared. A report says Germany is allowing the export of coal which has been accumulating for a long time.

The Russian Emperor declares that all the money that Belgium has been made to pay to Germany, the latter country will be forced to repay with interest in East Prussia. A Copenhagen despatch says that the Kiel canal has been re-opened to traffic, but that only a limited number of ships will be allowed to traverse it. Presumably, this refers to German ships.

A serious conflict between Turks and Armenians at Bitlis, in Turkish Armenia, is reported. Turkish mobilization on the Persian boundary is slow, many Christians and Kurds refusing to join the movement. Four steamships and eight sailing vessels were placed today before the first prize court in London since the Crimean war. One of the vessels is a 2,000 ton bark, and most of the cases were undefended. Sir Samuel Evans is presiding.

The Belgians have flooded the district around Malines to hinder the passage of German artillery. Lieut. Hutton Crowley and Capt. Clark Kennedy are under leave of absence from Valcartier to be married. They were given a rousing send-off. Telegraphing from Copenhagen, a correspondent says that the Berlin newspapers which have been received there describe the battle which was proceeding Wednesday between Rheims and Verdun as the greatest battle in history. Three quarters of a million men were declared to be participating in the engagement.

French troops have been passing through Paris for the last three days, headed toward the battle lines which protect the capital from the German advance. The principal newspapers of Paris have transferred their offices to Bordeaux where the Havas Agency also has established headquarters.
