

COMMERCIAL NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

For every visitor we have the same treatment, the same courteous attention, whether he buys a suit or simply looks and for every one the same rule—money back if you want it. No red tape, no "hems or haws"—money talks.

Gilmour's 68 King Street

TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION BOARDERS WANTED, 178 Charlotte street. WANTED—Young girl, 83 Brunswick street. WANTED—Stenographer at once.

IT LOOKS LIKE A SETTLEMENT OF THE I. C. R. WAGE MATTER

Moncton, Aug. 6.—While the C. B. of R. E. committee declined to talk tonight at the conclusion of the day's conference with General Manager Gutelius, yet it is stated that an understanding covering about all the matters in dispute has been practically agreed to and the whole thing will be closed up tomorrow.

LATE SHIPPING PORT OF ST. JOHN

Arrived Today: Stm Kanawha, 2488, Kellman, London. Stm Guernsey, 2808, Sorenson, Rotterdam. Stm Hartley W, 270, Wason, Mobile.

ROUND WORLD TRIP LESS THAN 36 DAYS

New York, Aug. 7.—A new world record in globe trotting was established tonight with the arrival of John Henry Meers, who, representing an evening newspaper in this city, circled the earth in 85 days 21 hours and 45 minutes.

British M. P.'s Leave Canada

Manchester, Aug. 7.—The Canadian-Australian line's Malva left for Australia and New Zealand yesterday. The British parliamentarians were passing through the province and Maine.

COMMISSION ON HIGHWAYS

And Entirely to Taking "Fruit-a-tives" Cure Solely. Hull, Que., Dec. 24th, 1909. "For the past twelve years, I had painful attacks of Dyspepsia, I could not digest my food and everything caused the most agonizing pain in my stomach."

FIRST SHIPMENT IS HERE TODAY FROM THEIR GERMAN WORKS. The first shipment of German steel for the Maritime Rail Works, came into the city on the steamer Guernsey from Rotterdam today.

SEASON'S FINAL CLEARANCE OF TRIMMED SUMMER HATS. Tremendous Price Reductions in Warm Weather Headwear at the Model Millinery Co., Showroom, 29 Canterbury Street—Store Opens Tomorrow Morning.

ST. JOHN REPORTER SAVES TWO LIVES. Two young ladies of Sackville, Miss Marie Desbarres and Miss Ade Pearl had a narrow escape from drowning yesterday while bathing at Cape Tormentine.

PERSONALS. Miss Mary Raymond, of Westville, N. S., is spending this week at Harbor View, West End, the guest of Miss Hazel A. Clark.

COCHRANE LIKELY TO FORGE INCREASED RATES ON THE I. C. R. Ottawa, Aug. 6.—The situation which has developed over the establishment of new schedules of local freight rates on the I. C. R. in certain parts of the Maritime provinces, no particular development has occurred, and from what can be learned here nothing immediate is anticipated.

WILL TOUR NEW BRUNSWICK. Tuesday's Amherst News says: Mr. and Mrs. George T. Douglas were in Dorchester last evening attending a masquerade ball given by Mr. and Mrs. Mariner G. Teed of that place.

FORMERLY OF ST. JOHN? Summerville Farmer—John Ryan, formerly of St. John, N. B., who gets into periodically when more than once, is now in Dorchester, N. S., brought before Stipendiary Magistrate at Summerville on Monday on a charge of being a vagrant.

IN CHANCERY. Hearing in the case of McVeety & Sons, Connolly, was resumed before Mr. Justice McLeod this morning. An injunction is asked restraining the defendants from operating a granite quarry in Gloucester county.

RECENT DEATHS. Fred E. Lutz died at Turtle Creek last Thursday at the home of his nephew, George H. Lutz, where he had made his home for the last four years.

ACTUARY TRIP. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gregory and the Misses Murray left today on a motor trip through this province and Maine. They will stay overnight at Fredericton and will then go through Maine. They will be away about ten days.

ACT NOT PROCLAIMED YET AND THEREFORE NO JUDGE APPOINTED

Hazen to Be Called on to Untangle Affairs—Daylight Robber Confesses. Fredericton, Aug. 7.—As far as can be learned no steps were taken at the recent meeting of the government to proclaim the supreme court act of last session which creates an additional judgeship.

LOCAL NEWS

Regular 75c and $1.00 shirts for 65c.—At Pidgeon's. Come to 87 King Street—Snappy bargains in summer dresses, suits and skirts at Fashion Hall. 8-11.

EVEN IN YORK COUNTY. Fredericton Mail—Why, even here in York county there are a whole lot of "cheese-eaters" even at this late date. Have they their last Conservative vote.

TRADES AND LABOR PICTING. Spend Saturday afternoon and evening at the Ferns, Trades and Labor Council Picnic, City Market Band in attendance. Take an avenue car. 8:00-11.

BOYS OVER 16 YEARS OF AGE WANTED at Healey's Brass Foundry. Apply at works. 8987-8-12.

HAS MONCTON GOT ONE? Moncton Transcript:—Judging by the ho-ho, the flag flying over the Hotel is one of those that Premier Borden's ally, Deputy Speaker Blondin, says his ancestors planted the pole to breathe the air of liberty.

OUR ARCTIC EXPLORERS. St. Andrew's Beacon—Hon. J. D. Hazen is somewhere between Vancouver and the Arctic circle. It is at least believed himself out of telegraphic reach of friend and foe. When last seen he was heading northward toward the pole.

WILL TOUR NEW BRUNSWICK. Tuesday's Amherst News says: Mr. and Mrs. George T. Douglas were in Dorchester last evening attending a masquerade ball given by Mr. and Mrs. Mariner G. Teed of that place.

IN CHANCERY. Hearing in the case of McVeety & Sons, Connolly, was resumed before Mr. Justice McLeod this morning. An injunction is asked restraining the defendants from operating a granite quarry in Gloucester county.

RECENT DEATHS. Fred E. Lutz died at Turtle Creek last Thursday at the home of his nephew, George H. Lutz, where he had made his home for the last four years.

ACTUARY TRIP. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gregory and the Misses Murray left today on a motor trip through this province and Maine. They will stay overnight at Fredericton and will then go through Maine. They will be away about ten days.

ACT NOT PROCLAIMED YET AND THEREFORE NO JUDGE APPOINTED

Hazen to Be Called on to Untangle Affairs—Daylight Robber Confesses. Fredericton, Aug. 7.—As far as can be learned no steps were taken at the recent meeting of the government to proclaim the supreme court act of last session which creates an additional judgeship.

LOCAL NEWS

Regular 75c and $1.00 shirts for 65c.—At Pidgeon's. Come to 87 King Street—Snappy bargains in summer dresses, suits and skirts at Fashion Hall. 8-11.

EVEN IN YORK COUNTY. Fredericton Mail—Why, even here in York county there are a whole lot of "cheese-eaters" even at this late date. Have they their last Conservative vote.

TRADES AND LABOR PICTING. Spend Saturday afternoon and evening at the Ferns, Trades and Labor Council Picnic, City Market Band in attendance. Take an avenue car. 8:00-11.

BOYS OVER 16 YEARS OF AGE WANTED at Healey's Brass Foundry. Apply at works. 8987-8-12.

HAS MONCTON GOT ONE? Moncton Transcript:—Judging by the ho-ho, the flag flying over the Hotel is one of those that Premier Borden's ally, Deputy Speaker Blondin, says his ancestors planted the pole to breathe the air of liberty.

OUR ARCTIC EXPLORERS. St. Andrew's Beacon—Hon. J. D. Hazen is somewhere between Vancouver and the Arctic circle. It is at least believed himself out of telegraphic reach of friend and foe. When last seen he was heading northward toward the pole.

WILL TOUR NEW BRUNSWICK. Tuesday's Amherst News says: Mr. and Mrs. George T. Douglas were in Dorchester last evening attending a masquerade ball given by Mr. and Mrs. Mariner G. Teed of that place.

IN CHANCERY. Hearing in the case of McVeety & Sons, Connolly, was resumed before Mr. Justice McLeod this morning. An injunction is asked restraining the defendants from operating a granite quarry in Gloucester county.

RECENT DEATHS. Fred E. Lutz died at Turtle Creek last Thursday at the home of his nephew, George H. Lutz, where he had made his home for the last four years.

ACTUARY TRIP. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gregory and the Misses Murray left today on a motor trip through this province and Maine. They will stay overnight at Fredericton and will then go through Maine. They will be away about ten days.

ACT NOT PROCLAIMED YET AND THEREFORE NO JUDGE APPOINTED

Hazen to Be Called on to Untangle Affairs—Daylight Robber Confesses. Fredericton, Aug. 7.—As far as can be learned no steps were taken at the recent meeting of the government to proclaim the supreme court act of last session which creates an additional judgeship.

LOCAL NEWS

Regular 75c and $1.00 shirts for 65c.—At Pidgeon's. Come to 87 King Street—Snappy bargains in summer dresses, suits and skirts at Fashion Hall. 8-11.

EVEN IN YORK COUNTY. Fredericton Mail—Why, even here in York county there are a whole lot of "cheese-eaters" even at this late date. Have they their last Conservative vote.

TRADES AND LABOR PICTING. Spend Saturday afternoon and evening at the Ferns, Trades and Labor Council Picnic, City Market Band in attendance. Take an avenue car. 8:00-11.

BOYS OVER 16 YEARS OF AGE WANTED at Healey's Brass Foundry. Apply at works. 8987-8-12.

HAS MONCTON GOT ONE? Moncton Transcript:—Judging by the ho-ho, the flag flying over the Hotel is one of those that Premier Borden's ally, Deputy Speaker Blondin, says his ancestors planted the pole to breathe the air of liberty.

OUR ARCTIC EXPLORERS. St. Andrew's Beacon—Hon. J. D. Hazen is somewhere between Vancouver and the Arctic circle. It is at least believed himself out of telegraphic reach of friend and foe. When last seen he was heading northward toward the pole.

WILL TOUR NEW BRUNSWICK. Tuesday's Amherst News says: Mr. and Mrs. George T. Douglas were in Dorchester last evening attending a masquerade ball given by Mr. and Mrs. Mariner G. Teed of that place.

IN CHANCERY. Hearing in the case of McVeety & Sons, Connolly, was resumed before Mr. Justice McLeod this morning. An injunction is asked restraining the defendants from operating a granite quarry in Gloucester county.

RECENT DEATHS. Fred E. Lutz died at Turtle Creek last Thursday at the home of his nephew, George H. Lutz, where he had made his home for the last four years.

ACTUARY TRIP. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gregory and the Misses Murray left today on a motor trip through this province and Maine. They will stay overnight at Fredericton and will then go through Maine. They will be away about ten days.

ACT NOT PROCLAIMED YET AND THEREFORE NO JUDGE APPOINTED

Hazen to Be Called on to Untangle Affairs—Daylight Robber Confesses. Fredericton, Aug. 7.—As far as can be learned no steps were taken at the recent meeting of the government to proclaim the supreme court act of last session which creates an additional judgeship.

LOCAL NEWS

Regular 75c and $1.00 shirts for 65c.—At Pidgeon's. Come to 87 King Street—Snappy bargains in summer dresses, suits and skirts at Fashion Hall. 8-11.

EVEN IN YORK COUNTY. Fredericton Mail—Why, even here in York county there are a whole lot of "cheese-eaters" even at this late date. Have they their last Conservative vote.

TRADES AND LABOR PICTING. Spend Saturday afternoon and evening at the Ferns, Trades and Labor Council Picnic, City Market Band in attendance. Take an avenue car. 8:00-11.

BOYS OVER 16 YEARS OF AGE WANTED at Healey's Brass Foundry. Apply at works. 8987-8-12.

HAS MONCTON GOT ONE? Moncton Transcript:—Judging by the ho-ho, the flag flying over the Hotel is one of those that Premier Borden's ally, Deputy Speaker Blondin, says his ancestors planted the pole to breathe the air of liberty.

OUR ARCTIC EXPLORERS. St. Andrew's Beacon—Hon. J. D. Hazen is somewhere between Vancouver and the Arctic circle. It is at least believed himself out of telegraphic reach of friend and foe. When last seen he was heading northward toward the pole.

WILL TOUR NEW BRUNSWICK. Tuesday's Amherst News says: Mr. and Mrs. George T. Douglas were in Dorchester last evening attending a masquerade ball given by Mr. and Mrs. Mariner G. Teed of that place.

IN CHANCERY. Hearing in the case of McVeety & Sons, Connolly, was resumed before Mr. Justice McLeod this morning. An injunction is asked restraining the defendants from operating a granite quarry in Gloucester county.

RECENT DEATHS. Fred E. Lutz died at Turtle Creek last Thursday at the home of his nephew, George H. Lutz, where he had made his home for the last four years.

ACTUARY TRIP. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gregory and the Misses Murray left today on a motor trip through this province and Maine. They will stay overnight at Fredericton and will then go through Maine. They will be away about ten days.

ACT NOT PROCLAIMED YET AND THEREFORE NO JUDGE APPOINTED

Hazen to Be Called on to Untangle Affairs—Daylight Robber Confesses. Fredericton, Aug. 7.—As far as can be learned no steps were taken at the recent meeting of the government to proclaim the supreme court act of last session which creates an additional judgeship.

LOCAL NEWS

Regular 75c and $1.00 shirts for 65c.—At Pidgeon's. Come to 87 King Street—Snappy bargains in summer dresses, suits and skirts at Fashion Hall. 8-11.

EVEN IN YORK COUNTY. Fredericton Mail—Why, even here in York county there are a whole lot of "cheese-eaters" even at this late date. Have they their last Conservative vote.

TRADES AND LABOR PICTING. Spend Saturday afternoon and evening at the Ferns, Trades and Labor Council Picnic, City Market Band in attendance. Take an avenue car. 8:00-11.

BOYS OVER 16 YEARS OF AGE WANTED at Healey's Brass Foundry. Apply at works. 8987-8-12.

HAS MONCTON GOT ONE? Moncton Transcript:—Judging by the ho-ho, the flag flying over the Hotel is one of those that Premier Borden's ally, Deputy Speaker Blondin, says his ancestors planted the pole to breathe the air of liberty.

OUR ARCTIC EXPLORERS. St. Andrew's Beacon—Hon. J. D. Hazen is somewhere between Vancouver and the Arctic circle. It is at least believed himself out of telegraphic reach of friend and foe. When last seen he was heading northward toward the pole.

WILL TOUR NEW BRUNSWICK. Tuesday's Amherst News says: Mr. and Mrs. George T. Douglas were in Dorchester last evening attending a masquerade ball given by Mr. and Mrs. Mariner G. Teed of that place.

IN CHANCERY. Hearing in the case of McVeety & Sons, Connolly, was resumed before Mr. Justice McLeod this morning. An injunction is asked restraining the defendants from operating a granite quarry in Gloucester county.

RECENT DEATHS. Fred E. Lutz died at Turtle Creek last Thursday at the home of his nephew, George H. Lutz, where he had made his home for the last four years.

ACTUARY TRIP. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gregory and the Misses Murray left today on a motor trip through this province and Maine. They will stay overnight at Fredericton and will then go through Maine. They will be away about ten days.

ACT NOT PROCLAIMED YET AND THEREFORE NO JUDGE APPOINTED

Hazen to Be Called on to Untangle Affairs—Daylight Robber Confesses. Fredericton, Aug. 7.—As far as can be learned no steps were taken at the recent meeting of the government to proclaim the supreme court act of last session which creates an additional judgeship.

LOCAL NEWS

Regular 75c and $1.00 shirts for 65c.—At Pidgeon's. Come to 87 King Street—Snappy bargains in summer dresses, suits and skirts at Fashion Hall. 8-11.

EVEN IN YORK COUNTY. Fredericton Mail—Why, even here in York county there are a whole lot of "cheese-eaters" even at this late date. Have they their last Conservative vote.

TRADES AND LABOR PICTING. Spend Saturday afternoon and evening at the Ferns, Trades and Labor Council Picnic, City Market Band in attendance. Take an avenue car. 8:00-11.

BOYS OVER 16 YEARS OF AGE WANTED at Healey's Brass Foundry. Apply at works. 8987-8-12.

HAS MONCTON GOT ONE? Moncton Transcript:—Judging by the ho-ho, the flag flying over the Hotel is one of those that Premier Borden's ally, Deputy Speaker Blondin, says his ancestors planted the pole to breathe the air of liberty.

OUR ARCTIC EXPLORERS. St. Andrew's Beacon—Hon. J. D. Hazen is somewhere between Vancouver and the Arctic circle. It is at least believed himself out of telegraphic reach of friend and foe. When last seen he was heading northward toward the pole.

WILL TOUR NEW BRUNSWICK. Tuesday's Amherst News says: Mr. and Mrs. George T. Douglas were in Dorchester last evening attending a masquerade ball given by Mr. and Mrs. Mariner G. Teed of that place.

IN CHANCERY. Hearing in the case of McVeety & Sons, Connolly, was resumed before Mr. Justice McLeod this morning. An injunction is asked restraining the defendants from operating a granite quarry in Gloucester county.

RECENT DEATHS. Fred E. Lutz died at Turtle Creek last Thursday at the home of his nephew, George H. Lutz, where he had made his home for the last four years.

ACTUARY TRIP. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gregory and the Misses Murray left today on a motor trip through this province and Maine. They will stay overnight at Fredericton and will then go through Maine. They will be away about ten days.

ACT NOT PROCLAIMED YET AND THEREFORE NO JUDGE APPOINTED

Hazen to Be Called on to Untangle Affairs—Daylight Robber Confesses. Fredericton, Aug. 7.—As far as can be learned no steps were taken at the recent meeting of the government to proclaim the supreme court act of last session which creates an additional judgeship.

LOCAL NEWS

Regular 75c and $1.00 shirts for 65c.—At Pidgeon's. Come to 87 King Street—Snappy bargains in summer dresses, suits and skirts at Fashion Hall. 8-11.

EVEN IN YORK COUNTY. Fredericton Mail—Why, even here in York county there are a whole lot of "cheese-eaters" even at this late date. Have they their last Conservative vote.

TRADES AND LABOR PICTING. Spend Saturday afternoon and evening at the Ferns, Trades and Labor Council Picnic, City Market Band in attendance. Take an avenue car. 8:00-11.

BOYS OVER 16 YEARS OF AGE WANTED at Healey's Brass Foundry. Apply at works. 8987-8-12.

HAS MONCTON GOT ONE? Moncton Transcript:—Judging by the ho-ho, the flag flying over the Hotel is one of those that Premier Borden's ally, Deputy Speaker Blondin, says his ancestors planted the pole to breathe the air of liberty.

OUR ARCTIC EXPLORERS. St. Andrew's Beacon—Hon. J. D. Hazen is somewhere between Vancouver and the Arctic circle. It is at least believed himself out of telegraphic reach of friend and foe. When last seen he was heading northward toward the pole.

WILL TOUR NEW BRUNSWICK. Tuesday's Amherst News says: Mr. and Mrs. George T. Douglas were in Dorchester last evening attending a masquerade ball given by Mr. and Mrs. Mariner G. Teed of that place.

IN CHANCERY. Hearing in the case of McVeety & Sons, Connolly, was resumed before Mr. Justice McLeod this morning. An injunction is asked restraining the defendants from operating a granite quarry in Gloucester county.

RECENT DEATHS. Fred E. Lutz died at Turtle Creek last Thursday at the home of his nephew, George H. Lutz, where he had made his home for the last four years.

ACTUARY TRIP. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gregory and the Misses Murray left today on a motor trip through this province and Maine. They will stay overnight at Fredericton and will then go through Maine. They will be away about ten days.

ACT NOT PROCLAIMED YET AND THEREFORE NO JUDGE APPOINTED

Hazen to Be Called on to Untangle Affairs—Daylight Robber Confesses. Fredericton, Aug. 7.—As far as can be learned no steps were taken at the recent meeting of the government to proclaim the supreme court act of last session which creates an additional judgeship.

LOCAL NEWS

Regular 75c and $1.00 shirts for 65c.—At Pidgeon's. Come to 87 King Street—Snappy bargains in summer dresses, suits and skirts at Fashion Hall. 8-11.

EVEN IN YORK COUNTY. Fredericton Mail—Why, even here in York county there are a whole lot of "cheese-eaters" even at this late date. Have they their last Conservative vote.

TRADES AND LABOR PICTING. Spend Saturday afternoon and evening at the Ferns, Trades and Labor Council Picnic, City Market Band in attendance. Take an avenue car. 8:00-11.

BOYS OVER 16 YEARS OF AGE WANTED at Healey's Brass Foundry. Apply at works. 8987-8-12.

HAS MONCTON GOT ONE? Moncton Transcript:—Judging by the ho-ho, the flag flying over the Hotel is one of those that Premier Borden's ally, Deputy Speaker Blondin, says his ancestors planted the pole to breathe the air of liberty.

OUR ARCTIC EXPLORERS. St. Andrew's Beacon—Hon. J. D. Hazen is somewhere between Vancouver and the Arctic circle. It is at least believed himself out of telegraphic reach of friend and foe. When last seen he was heading northward toward the pole.

WILL TOUR NEW BRUNSWICK. Tuesday's Amherst News says: Mr. and Mrs. George T. Douglas were in Dorchester last evening attending a masquerade ball given by Mr. and Mrs. Mariner G. Teed of that place.

IN CHANCERY. Hearing in the case of McVeety & Sons, Connolly, was resumed before Mr. Justice McLeod this morning. An injunction is asked restraining the defendants from operating a granite quarry in Gloucester county.

RECENT DEATHS. Fred E. Lutz died at Turtle Creek last Thursday at the home of his nephew, George H. Lutz, where he had made his home for the last four years.

ACTUARY TRIP. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gregory and the Misses Murray left today on a motor trip through this province and Maine. They will stay overnight at Fredericton and will then go through Maine. They will be away about ten days.

ACT NOT PROCLAIMED YET AND THEREFORE NO JUDGE APPOINTED

Hazen to Be Called on to Untangle Affairs—Daylight Robber Confesses. Fredericton, Aug. 7.—As far as can be learned no steps were taken at the recent meeting of the government to proclaim the supreme court act of last session which creates an additional judgeship.

LOCAL NEWS

Regular 75c and $1.00 shirts for 65c.—At Pidgeon's. Come to 87 King Street—Snappy bargains in summer dresses, suits and skirts at Fashion Hall. 8-11.

EVEN IN YORK COUNTY. Fredericton Mail—Why, even here in York county there are a whole lot of "cheese-eaters" even at this late date. Have they their last Conservative vote.

TRADES AND LABOR PICTING. Spend Saturday afternoon and evening at the Ferns, Trades and Labor Council Picnic, City Market Band in attendance. Take an avenue car. 8:00-11.

BOYS OVER 16 YEARS OF AGE WANTED at Healey's Brass Foundry. Apply at works. 8987-8-12.

HAS MONCTON GOT ONE? Moncton Transcript:—Judging by the ho-ho, the flag flying over the Hotel is one of those that Premier Borden's ally, Deputy Speaker Blondin, says his ancestors planted the pole to breathe the air of liberty.

OUR ARCTIC EXPLORERS. St. Andrew's Beacon—Hon. J. D. Hazen is somewhere between Vancouver and the Arctic circle. It is at least believed himself out of telegraphic reach of friend and foe. When last seen he was heading northward toward the pole.

WILL TOUR NEW BRUNSWICK. Tuesday's Amherst News says: Mr. and Mrs. George T. Douglas were in Dorchester last evening attending a masquerade ball given by Mr. and Mrs. Mariner G. Teed of that place.

IN CHANCERY. Hearing in the case of McVeety & Sons, Connolly, was resumed before Mr. Justice McLeod this morning. An injunction is asked restraining the defendants from operating a granite quarry in Gloucester county.

RECENT DEATHS. Fred E. Lutz died at Turtle Creek last Thursday at the home of his nephew, George H. Lutz, where he had made his home for the last four years.

ACTUARY TRIP. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gregory and the Misses Murray left today on a motor trip through this province and Maine. They will stay overnight at Fredericton and will then go through Maine. They will be away about ten days.

ACT NOT PROCLAIMED YET AND THEREFORE NO JUDGE APPOINTED

Hazen to Be Called on to Untangle Affairs—Daylight Robber Confesses. Fredericton, Aug. 7.—As far as can be learned no steps were taken at the recent meeting of the government to proclaim the supreme court act of last session which creates an additional judgeship.

LOCAL NEWS

Regular 75c and $1.00 shirts for 65c.—At Pidgeon's. Come to 87 King Street—Snappy bargains in summer dresses, suits and skirts at Fashion Hall. 8-11.

EVEN IN YORK COUNTY. Fredericton Mail—Why, even here in York county there are a whole lot of "cheese-eaters" even at this late date. Have they their last Conservative vote.

TRADES AND LABOR PICTING. Spend Saturday afternoon and evening at the Ferns, Trades and Labor Council Picnic, City Market Band in attendance. Take an avenue car. 8:00-11.

BOYS OVER 16 YEARS OF AGE WANTED at Healey's Brass Foundry. Apply at works. 8987-8-12.

HAS MONCTON GOT ONE? Moncton Transcript:—Judging by the ho-ho, the flag flying over the Hotel is one of those that Premier Borden's ally, Deputy Speaker Blondin, says his ancestors planted the pole to breathe the air of liberty.

OUR ARCTIC EXPLORERS. St. Andrew's Beacon—Hon. J. D. Hazen is somewhere between Vancouver and the Arctic circle. It is at least believed himself out of telegraphic reach of friend and foe. When last seen he was heading northward toward the pole.

WILL TOUR NEW BRUNSWICK. Tuesday's Amherst News says: Mr. and Mrs. George T. Douglas were in Dorchester last evening attending a masquerade ball given by Mr. and Mrs. Mariner G. Teed of that place.

IN CHANCERY. Hearing in the case of McVeety & Sons, Connolly, was resumed before Mr. Justice McLeod this morning. An injunction is asked restraining the defendants from operating a granite quarry in Gloucester county.

RECENT DEATHS. Fred E. Lutz died at Turtle Creek last Thursday at the home of his nephew, George H. Lutz, where he had made his home for the last four years.

ACTUARY TRIP. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gregory and the Misses Murray left today on a motor trip through this province and Maine. They will stay overnight at Fredericton and will then go through Maine. They will be away about ten days.

ACT NOT PROCLAIMED YET AND THEREFORE NO JUDGE APPOINTED

Hazen to Be Called on to Untangle Affairs—Daylight Robber Confesses. Fredericton, Aug. 7.—As far as can be learned no steps were taken at the recent meeting of the government to proclaim the supreme court act of last session which creates an additional judgeship.

LOCAL NEWS

Regular 75c and $1.00 shirts for 65c.—At Pidgeon's. Come to 87 King Street—Snappy bargains in summer dresses, suits and skirts at Fashion Hall. 8-11.

EVEN IN YORK COUNTY. Fredericton Mail—Why, even here in York county there are a whole lot of "cheese-eaters" even at this late date. Have they their last Conservative vote.

TRADES AND LABOR P