About the Time It Takes for a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet to Work on the Food and Bring Relief.

Trill Package Sent Free

There is no long wait between the time you take a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet and the feeling of relief it will bring to an overworked stomach. It gets busy in a jiffy and quickly sets things to rights in that tired and disordered stomach. It goes right to the work of digesting the food it finds lodged there and in no time at all has things on the move—the gases cease forming, the breath is sweetened, the coating on the tongue disappears and you are no longer conscious that you even have a stomach.

That is one of the chief recommendations for Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets—that they don't take forever to accomplish the purpose for which you need them. It is just as if you put an extra stomach on two to work when your needed help. You can't continually overload your stomach and expect it to always smile. It is going to get rebellious and sulky after awhile and refuse to go on being driven to do double work. You must rest it occasionally—not by starving and thereby weakening yourself physically—but by using a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet to do the work of digesting your food.

These tablets contain all the active elements of the natural stomach juices and will alone and unaided digest food just the same as the gastric juices. And nothing could be more harmless than these tablets. They do not affect the system in any way—do not cure any ailment except as they digest food. Use them freely.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists everywhere. Price, 25 cents per box. A trial package will be sent if you will write P. A. Stuart Co., 120 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

RICHESON SENTENCED TO ELECTRIC CHAIR MAY 19

Effort Will Now Be Made to Have Governor Pardon Life Prison Term

Boston, Jan. 9.—With the appearance of a man who had abandoned all hope of life, Rev. Charles F. Richeson stood today at the bar of justice, declared his guilt of the premeditated murder of his former sweetheart, Arrie Linch, and begged without a tremor the words of Judge Sanderson that condemned him to death in the electric chair on the week beginning May 19.

Richeson's counsel declared after the proceedings that an appeal for executive clemency would follow soon and that every effort would be made to obtain life imprisonment instead of death as the punishment. Whether the petition will be based upon Richeson's services to the country in making his confession, or upon a claim of irresponsibility, has not yet been decided. But it is the general expectation that Governor F. A. Lincoln will grant clemency, and that the sentence of death will be commuted to life imprisonment.

Boston, Jan. 9.—(Special)—The state man published by The Montreal Star, and other Canadian newspapers that Rev. Mr. Richeson is a raving maniac is untrue. The Boston Herald, which has been the original source of the news, has been in contempt of court.

BOSTON STRIKE MAY END ST. JOHN

Boston, Mass., Jan. 9.—The strike of 2,000 longshoremen here last week is expected to spread tomorrow morning to the freight handlers, clerks and other freight employees, numbering 3,000.

Steamers are being diverted to other ports, and the Allan Line people are considering the advisability of sending the Numidian to St. John, instead of coming to Boston.

If the port is tied up for a protracted period, New York, St. John, and Portland will get much of Boston's grain export business.

The Knights of Labor assembled in prolonged session tonight, and a general strike seems inevitable.

There is no disorder thus far, but it is expected that the strike will spread to the railroad freight hands trouble is expected.

Strikebreakers have been imported into Boston in larger numbers than in previous strikes. They are quartered on boats and on docks, under police guard, at previous cost. Through union affiliations there is close relation between the longshoremen and men who will handle the cargoes both before and after the longshoremen handle them. Freight handlers, for example, are members of the same district assembly as the longshoremen, and nearly all the union men handling the freight in the course of the transmission from point of shipment to their destinations are affiliated through the Knights of Labor.

Toronto man cured of Intolerable Itch

By Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment

"I just want to say a good word for Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Four or five years ago I was in Port Arthur, and had a terrible itch. It certainly was an intolerable nuisance. The itching was principally at nights when I went to bed. The itching was especially annoying.

"I went to a doctor about it, and tried more than one remedy. I was told to use salicylic acid, but that did not help. I then tried to use a hot bath, but that did not help. I then tried to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I took his advice, and sure enough, the itch for two or three months before I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment, was completely cured me of that intolerable nuisance. The doctor who told me to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment was a very good doctor. Anything in this testimonial I would be proud to send to the doctor who told me to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I am, J. E. Hooper, 208 Parliament Street, Toronto, Ont., Can.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS

Budget of News Concerning Stage Favorites Known to St. John Audiences.

Lillian Russell, the other night, unconsciously brought her first husband and Alexander P. Moore, publisher of the Pittsburgh Leader, who is to be No. 4, face-to-face in Wallack's Theatre, New York. The fair diva, who, though the almanacs accuse her of being fifty this year, vouches she is but forty-four, did not plan the meeting or intend it. She just stumbled into it by accident. She and her new fiance went to the theatre to see "Diarrhea" and occupied a box overlooking the orchestra pit. Down in the pit, as they took their seats, Harry Abraham, leader of the musicians, was working a violin for his dear life. The trombone man poked out a hand and caught her almost tumbled over on top of a fat German blowing a flute. Turning around, she saw the first husband, who was looking at her with a look of recognition that she had ever seen the lowly violinist before in her life.

It is twenty-six years since they were divorced. In that time Abraham has moved forward but little, while the other wife has become the acknowledged queen of comic opera and the popular fete of thousands of beauty-loving men. Prospective husband No. 4 did not discover the secret of her obvious nervousness until after the show, and then he had a high all to himself. Abraham thought at first that the joke was on him, but now he thinks it is on Moore.

It was one of those pestilential microbes incubated upon which bewitched the plays, that the secret was from the heart's devotion for the uplift of humanity, Luisa Tetrazzini, the soprano, would not have made quicker disposition of the dollar presented her the other evening by an agent of Oscar Hammerstein. Hammerstein was waiting in a suit between himself and Meyer, Reisch over a series of concerts in which the latter in alleged violation of his contract, alleged to have been made by the songbird with him, started her in concert. The supposita servers who had been the trail of the singer, had a great difficulty in serving her. They finally cornered her alighting from her car on the stage of the Metropolitan Opera House, in New York, on the evening on which she was scheduled to appear in the role of Desdemona. She started to enter, a polite and courteous-looking man handed her the paper, and a bright smile lit up her face. Perchance it was with a joke, the dollar. Just like Americans. She was to be paid before and after the singing, or upon a claim of irresponsibility, has not yet been decided. But it is the general expectation that Governor F. A. Lincoln will grant clemency, and that the sentence of death will be commuted to life imprisonment.

Apple Growing.

A. G. Turney, provincial horticulturist, was then introduced, and in a lecture illustrated by numerous lantern slides, gave an interesting account of what has been accomplished in raising apples on the three government experimental orchards in the province during the past year. He said that commercial orcharding had been advocated for New Brunswick for some years, but they had been hampered by the lack of authoritative facts and figures showing exactly what returns might be expected from the investment of capital in this business. To overcome this the department of agriculture decided last spring to take hold of three orchards under average conditions and show what could be done.

The orchard which they had purchased and named in Simsbury county, containing 11.3 acres, showed a net profit of $8.15 or $7.00 per acre. On a valuation of $400 per acre the would be fourteen per cent. Next year the profits should be one-third greater.

On 1.2 acres at Douglas, York county, there was a profit of $136 or $80 per acre. The largest of their orchards, including eight acres, was located in Albert county. On three acres they showed a profit of $345 or $181 per acre. He regarded this the maximum for this orchard and the average would be about $125 per acre. On the balance of the orchard, five acres produced a profit of $221 or $145 per acre.

Pictures of the Simsbury county farm showed the trees before and after pruning, spraying operations and the orchard in full foliage. When the latter picture was taken the orchard was the only one of the kind in the province. The orchard was the only one of the kind in the province. IT PUMPS LIFE INTO YOU

I can take a man like you and pump new energy into your body while you sleep, and in a few weeks you will be transformed into a giant of strength and courage. Energy is but electricity, and if you lack energy you need electricity.

Dear Sir,—I write to let you know that your belt has cured me, and I am entirely satisfied with your treatment. I then gave it to my sister to wear, and she too was entirely cured, after being treated by many different doctors, and she being told that she would have to go under an operation which she would not consent. She used your belt and was entirely cured.

JOHN W. THIRATZ, Bruce Mines, Ont.

When you put your drug stand and put your reason. Your experience with drugs teaches you that you must eat, sleep and look for a natural method. When your health failed it seemed inherent by nature for you to look for some magic cure something that you could take into your stomach to do the work of your digestive organs, bowels, liver and kidneys.

The first dose brought you relief, but with each succeeding dose you found the effect lessened, until you are now down and out, a perfect invalid, for you have allowed drugs to do the work of your vital organs, and without them you are even in a worse condition than when you began.

If you feel tired and stupid, with no ambition to get out and hustle; if you have spells of drowsiness, and a desire to give up the fight, you need new energy. The race is to the strong. Show me a failure and I'll show you a weakness, lacking in courage, strength and ambition, three essentials to the making up of a successful man.

My belt is an appliance for infusing a powerful, but soothing, current into the body without the least shock or unpleasant sensation. You can use it two to eight hours every day and waste no time—you need not be conscious that you are taking treatment. It is cheaper than a course of drugs.
