I was extremely nervous, which I suffered in its worst form.

Mr. Hunter, my druggist, about "Fruit-a-tives" and he advised me to try them.I received boxes and am pleased to say I am now enjoying fine health.
I believe I owe my health to Montreal, April 30.—Rio has been strong on the way of general expansion of the company's operations as set forth in the annual report last week. Whereas the ratio of a high record, based on more immediate prospects of an increase in dividend, most shareholders may feel satisfied with the company's earnings of over nine per cent. last year. It is a position to maintain its increase at any time. The growth of many of the company's branches as it advances the telephone department last year would indicate that the earnings are on a considerably higher level than the current twelve months.EDMUND—Steel Co. of Canada, de-

THE LATE C. M. HAYS

(R. V. in Montreal Gazette.) Charles Melville Hays may be said to represent Canada's share in the age's railway development. Mr. Hays was a babe in arms when the Grand Trunk celebration of November, 1886, took place. What is remembered as the Boston Railroad Jubilee had taken place five years earlier, and four years afterwards the late King Edward, as Prince of Wales, formally opened for transportation and travel the great Montreal bridge named after his royal and beloved mother. Mr. Hays had bargained manhood when Lord Strathcona (then Sir Donald Smith) marked by an official act the completion of the Canadian Pacific Railway. Yet in twenty-five years, as distinguished had been the services of Mr. Hays to his adopted country that he is said (as Dr. H. J. Morgan informs us in "Canadian Men and Women of the Time") to have been offered the honor of knighthood. There are men as to whom such a report would simply occasion a smile. Mr. Hays was not one of them. No person would venture to assert that he was not worthy of any honor which King Edward or King George could have conferred on him; and if he had personal convictions which led him to prefer being simply one of the people, whom he served with such good will and to such good purpose, it may be recalled that for such preference he could cite such worthy names—Blake, Macdonald, Gladstone even, and more, perhaps, than say of us know.

PETTY POLITICS

Richibucto, Kent county, April 30.—It takes Mr. Robtson, the Tory M. P., from Kent county, to size himself up as the smallest M. P. in the Dominion parliament. It appears that Giff Atkinson, the popular merchant at Kouchibouthe Liberal candidates for the County of Kent. His wife, Catherine Atkinson, is

ONE DOLLAR GAS

THE CLEANEST, MOST CONVENIENT FUEL KNOWN TO CULINARY SCIENCEIn comfort lies the great difference between living and existing—a difference particularly marked when viewed in the light of culinary science. Many a housewife knows, too well, what it means to cook the three daily meals in a hot kitchen, toiling over a hotter range and working with face-burning coals and dusty ashes which soil the hands and clothing. Compare this mode of cooking with theNEWER AND BETTER WAY with which, instead of coal or wood, the fuel is ONE DOLLAR GAS, which does away with coal scuttles and ash pans, dust and dirt, besides being far the cheaper and ensuring the best results.THE FIRE NEEDS NO ATTENTION when ONE DOLLAR GAS is the fuel. You simply turn the tap, light a match, and instantly, you have a working flame. The heat is easily regulated, remaining perfectly even at whatever temperature you desire—a highly important feature in baking, roasting, etc.THERE IS NO ODOR from broiling and frying, which, in our Gas Ranges, is done under cover, the "smoke" being up the flue and out of the house.OUR EXTENSIVE LINE OF MODERN GAS STOVES AND RANGES enables us to cater to the needs of any home, boarding house, hotel or restaurant. Any stove or range we will furnish either for cash or on the easy payment plan.

COME AND SEE THEM ANYTIME.
