MUTINEERS ARE VICTORS

Brazilian Navy Men Win Their Demands and Thereupon Surrender—All Now Quiet

Rio Janeiro, Nov. 25.—The naval mutineers surrendered today, congress voting amnesty. The demands of the mutineers were granted by the government. The capital slept last night with the guns of its own navy trained upon it. The mutineers remained seemingly masters of the situation. Towards 1 o'clock one of the mutinous fleet fired on the naval arsenal. The scout cruiser Deodoro joined the battleships Minas Terras and Sao Paulo and the scout Bahia in revolt during the night. The rebellious sailors continued a defiant attitude this morning before congress met, and there was nothing to indicate that they would compromise or surrender. Even though assured of amnesty, except in the event that the Government yielded to their ultimatum of yesterday and granted an indemnity in pay, the abolition of corporal punishment in the navy, and the adjustment of minor grievances.

THE TIMES' NEW REPORTER

An artistic joy. Some of the residents along German street have refused to accept the sewer rack provided by the city to perform the boulevard, and are having their material hauled to the pails. The result is a charming patchwork effect, with shades of color from brick red to black. The town council is described by Miss Rivlin McWhorter as "bric-a-brac." Any persons having earth in their back yards that is of a shade between white and red would care for a favor by offering some of it, as some spaces have not yet been filled.

LEAP FROG AND LOYALTY

The Times new reporter was asked this morning by a Daughter of the Empire if he had played leap-frog on a tobacconist. He replied that he had not, as when he was a boy the tobacconists were not provided with the right kind of parents. The Daughter of the Empire said she would visit a tobacconist store at once, and look over the stock of guns.
