THE M'KINLEY TARIFF BILL.

We publish to-day from the Toronto Globe those schedules of the McKinley tariff bill, as passed by the Senate, which will most affect Canada. It is not likely that they will be altered by the House of Representatives, so that after the 1st October next, less than three weeks hence, the products of Canada will be subjected to the rates of duty specified in the article which appears on this page. A glance at the agricultural schedule will show in an instant how injurious it is likely to be to Canadian interests. The duty on eggs alone will probably put an end to an export trade which now amounts to about $2,000,000 a year. There is no change in the duty on coal. The fish schedule imposes a duty on fresh fish, which have until now gone in free, and makes some changes in other kinds of fish, but not to such an extent as to seriously interfere with our export trade. If our coasts are properly guarded against Yankee poachers we will sell more fish than ever to the people of the United States, and our efforts should now be directed to breaking up the American fishing ports on the Atlantic by shipping direct from our own ports to the places where the fish are to be distributed. The lumber schedule does not alter the duty on spruce boards or deals but it reduces the duty on pine boards and pine shingles by one half. Laths will pay the same duty as before, but the duty on pickets and palings and lumber for wharf building is reduced by one half. These are the most favorable features of the new tariff bill which is calculated to reduce our exports to the United States to the extent of at least $10,000,000 and our imports from that country to a proportionate extent.

HE HATES CANADA.

The Globe, last evening, devotes almost a column of its editorial space to an attack on an English tourist who has published two fishing sketches on the Miramichi in the Illustrated London News, and in doing so made some mistakes in the geography of New Brunswick. This gives the Globe an opportunity of attacking Sir Charles Tupper, who, in its opinion, ought to take a bundle of maps under his arm and go about lecturing in the United Kingdom on the geography of Canada. This brilliant idea ought to be communicated to Sir Charles Tupper, who, perhaps may be impelled by his affection for the editor of the Globe to comply with his request. At the same time we must call the attention of Mr. Ellis to the fact that any errors in regard to the geography of New Brunswick in the article referred to are of small consequence when compared to the gross misrepresentations of this Province which are constantly appearing in the Globe. What does it matter that an English tourist should make the blunder of describing the Miramichi as a tributary of the St. John, when weighed against the descriptions which Mr. Ellis has been giving of New Brunswick, in his paper, as a ruined and utterly lost province, whose people were flying from it by the thousand. The tourist's blunder was a harmless one, not designed to injure New Brunswick while the misrepresentations of the Globe have been deliberate and wilful, dictated by malice and by a disloyal desire to haul down the British flag.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

The city official whoever he may be, who is responsible for the neglect which has made it necessary to tear up the Mill Street pavement for the purpose of placing the water pipe at the proper depth should be compelled to pay for this work. It is scandalous that a pavement which has just been laid should have to be torn up because the person charged with the duty of attending to the details of this work neglected what should have been their first care.

The point taken yesterday in the York election petition that by the postponement of the matter on the 25th August, when application was to have been made to fix a date for the trial, the court had adjourned sine die and therefore the petition was at an end, is a very important one, and will no doubt be argued before the full bench in October next. Should the result be the defeat of the York election petition the gentlemen who are so anxious to take charge of the government of this province, after ousting Mr. Blair, will probably have to turn their attention to some other line of business.

A correspondent calls attention to the fact that Mr. T. Nisbet Robertson, one of proprietors of the Globe is only taxed $38.25, viz on $1,000 income and $1,500 personal property. The very year Mr. Robertson received this income he had from the city $200 as a revisor and $100 as an alderman, so that his private income from the Globe can only be $700, unless the assessors have grossly erred. For a man who drives a carriage and has a country residence this is but a small income. We trust that Mr. Robertson has not been making a false return of his income to the assessors.

It is rumored that certain leading Conservatives have it in their minds to nominate one of four persons who have until now been Grits, on the Conservative ticket for the Parliamentry representation of the city and county of St. John. The four persons named are Messrs A. A. Stockton, Silas Alward, Harry McKeown and Howard D. Troop. Their recommendation in the eyes of the gentlemen referred to is that they are opposed to the Provincial governmen and dislike Mr. Blair. Perhaps it would simplify matters if the gentlement referred to would nominate Mr. Ellis who is also opposed to the Provincial Government and who also dislikes Mr. Blair. His reasons for turning Conservative are quite as good, indeed better than those of either of the four persons whom we have named for he knows very well that if he does not turn Conservative he has no chance of re-election.

Two provincial premiers, Mr. Blair and Mr. Fielding, were in the city yesterday and both of them, in the course of the day, found their way to THE GAZETTE office. Differing greatly in many respects, they are alike in the success with which they have kept their governments from shipwreck. The task of Mr. Fielding is the simpler of the two because the government of Nova Scotia is run on strict party lines which is not the case in this province. Mr. Blair's government suffers in cohesive energy from the fact that it is not allied to either party in the Dominion, but it also gains in its freedom to act for the benefit of the province without regard to the exigencies of the political situation at Ottawa.

STRUCK DOWN IN HIS OFFICE.

Coal Merchant Worth the Victim of a Bold Attempt at Robbery.

GLEN COVE, Sept 6.—J. H. Worth, a coal merchant of Sea Cliff, near this place, was sitting alone in his office yesterday afternoon when a man quietly entered and before Mr. Worth realized his purpose he received a stunning blow on the head with an iron wrench, and fell senseless. The man was about to strike a second blow when Robert Dayton, a driver in the employ of Mr. Worth, ran into the office and grappled with him. Mr. Worth still lay on the floor insensible and bleeding from a wound in his head.

Dayton struggled with the would-be assassin until assistance arrived, when the man was overpowered and taken to the village lockup. He was recognized as a man who was formerly in the employ of Mr. Worth, and who is known in Sea Cliff by the name of "William." Mr. Worth was conveyed to his home in the village. He was still unconscious when three physicians arrived to attend him. They examined the wound in his head, but could not tell positively whether the skull was fractured. The doctors agreed that there was danger of death from concussion of the brain. Up to a late hour to-night he had not rallied or spoken to any one.

The assailant was taken before 'Squire Frost this evening. He refused to make any statement, and was committed to jail to await the results of Mr. Worth's injuries. He was in the employ of Mr. Worth as a hired man, about two years ago. He was not seen in Sea Cliff for a long time until recently, when he reappeared in the village asking for work. He called at Mr. Worth's house on Thursday and was supplied with a meal. Since then he has been hanging about the village. He was familiar with Mr. Worth's movements, and knew that he always had a large sum of money in the office on Saturday afternoon to pay off his men. There is little doubt that the prisoner intended to get possession of the money in the office.

STANLEY ON EMIN PASHA.

Some More Adjectives Applied to Emin.

The English interest in the Stanley expedition is argumented by the menacing attitude of Major Wissmann, Dr. Peters, Emin Pasha, and the German-African companies generally. Stanley is not the one to remain quiet under German fire, and in an interview on Thursday with the editor of the St. Moritz Post he expressed himself very plainly of Emin. He says:

To a man of such exquisite and morbid sensibilities and most inordinate self-esteem nothing can be right except slavish adulation. He is continually in the sulks and it is useless to meddle with him. The negotiations with him began at Ugogo in October, and Emin's admiration for the English and gratitude to them were first checked by Wissmann's letter to him which he received when nine days from the coast, and which said:

'Though English have relieved you, I hope you will not forget that we are your countrymen and would do as much for you; and I hope you will make your quarters with us at Bagamoyo.'

"Emin Pasha began to weigh then what he could get from either party. Wissmann thought he would get him for the Germans. The fall after the banquet put him in Wissmann's power. It was then necessary to keep pegging away whispering things about me, about the English, about the Consul-general, distorting and magnifying everything to the weak, unstable and sick man, who recognized only Wissmann's magnanimity. The Germans think they have been very clever in all this, but one of the officers of the expedition, as soon as Emin had read Wissmann's letter to him, said:

"'I'll bet Wissmann will get him, and it will be best for the English if he joins the Germans, for he is bound to spoil everything he touches.'

"It was a bold prediction, but it has proved true."

TRIED TO BLACKMAIL AN ACTRESS.

A Young German's Attempt to Make Money Out of a Fellow Boarder.

Paul Seibelking, 25 years of age, came to this country about 6 months ago, and got employment as a porter in the china and crockery warehouse of L. Strauss & Son, 42 to 48 Warren street. He boarded with Mrs. Schmitt at 10 Irving place. A few weeks ago Fraulein Lemnlein, an actress, came here from Hamburg, and went to board with Mrs. Schmitt. At breakfast one morning the actress said she wanted to send $15 to her mother in Hamburg, and wondered whether she should register the letter. Seibelking volunteered to send the money for her, and Miss Lemnlein gave him a letter with the money enclosed.

She thought no more of the matter until she received a note from Seibelking saying that if she did not give him $250 he would write to her mother that Miss Lemnlein was not conducting herself properly in America. Miss Lemnlein judged from the letter that Seibelking had read the communication she had given him to send to Germany, and wrote her mother asking if she had received the $15. Mrs. Lemnlein replied that she had not, and Miss Lemnlien reported the facts to the police. Detective Heidelberg searched Lemnlein's room for evidence and found about $75 worth of china, which, it was afterwards proved, belonged to L. Strauss & Son. Mrs. Schmitt also told the dectective that Seibelking had presented to her several china sets and these she handed over to him. Paul L. Witzell, the manager of Strauss's house, identified all the china as having been taken from the firm. Seibelking was held for trial yesterday in the Tombs Court on the charge of grand larceny.

It has been decided that no Canadian team will be sent to Creedmoor this year.

THE M'KINLEY TARIFF.

THE MEASURE AS IT WAS FINALLY ADOPTED BY THE SENATE.

The Schedule Which Most Affects Canadian Interests.

(Correspondence Toronto Globe.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The Schedules of most interest to Canada in the new tariff bill are the fish, agricultural and lumber schedules. They take effect on October 1st. They are as follows:

THE LUMBER SCHEDULE.

Style Comes High but Londoners Must Have It.

Rumor has it that the extravagance of this season has never been exceeded by any other, says a London paper. The expenses of one concert were £5,000; the presents at one cotillion cost £2,000; flowers at a certain fashionable ball cost £1,000; and at one large dinner-party the orchids alone cost the host £300.

THE Up John Pills.
By examining the physical condition of these Pills, it will be observed that most of them can readily be crushed and reduced to a powder by pressure under the thumb, showing a friable condition not found in pills of other make. Made without excipient by pressure, the process employed leaves the pills in a dry powder and porous condition, which does not harden by age. A full assortment of different kinds just received. "KILL TWO BIRDS WITH ONE STONE."
Money is a cash article and so is clothing with us. Our customers rather pay cash than have bills always staring them in the face. As you come to the Exhibition have a little of the cash article to exchange for the clothing article. It will pay you to deposit with us a share of the necessary at that time, and even now we are prepared to figure so close that it is impossible to get inside of our price. The O. H. C. H., Corner King and Germain Sts., is neck to neck with the times in clothing.
