til this evening.

There were found on the body 50 cents in money, a silver watch and a knife. There were no apparent marks of violence, but it was reported around town that deceased's neck was broken. It is thought that Lamb was walking over the bridge and, missing his footing in the dark fell to the ground sistance of some 20 to 25 feet.

Michael Lamb was an old resident of this locality and was in his 67th year. He was a brother of James Lamb, of Harwich, and John Lamb, of Chiagge, I. P. Kaller in the control of the cont Lamb, of Harwich, and John Lamb, of Chicago. J. B. Kelley is a nephew. Two sons survive. One resides near Ridgetown and the other is in business in Bay City.

SIDE-TRACKED.

The attraction at the Grand on Tuesday next will be the laughable success "Side-Tracked" presented by a capable company and adequately if not gorgeously staged. The play is a comedy-drama bordering on the farce, check-full of the and brighting with comedy-drama bordering on the farce, chock-full of fun and bristling with just enough sensation to balance the mirth effects. The principal character is a tramp. The tramp has done a great deal to bring out the humor of many plays of late, but it is rarely that he acts both as comedian and hero; but the one in "Side-Tracked" is a very realistic hero-tramp; he does many realistic things as well as many laughable ones, rescues the heroine, foils the schemes of the villain, prevents the other hero from being hanged, makes love to the prevents the other hero from being hanged, makes love to the soubrette and altogether makes his way into the hearts of his auditors, as a genial, kind hearted fellow, even if his clothes are ragged. Mr. E. H. O'Connor, who assumes the part of the tramp is a capital actor, and a clever singer and dancer; he is ably assisted by a strong company.

A Number of Cases Were Heard But no Conviction Resulted.

Bertie Martin Not Yet Able to Appear as a Witness-A Nonsupport Case Dropped.

There was a busy session of the police court this morning.

The lads Tickner and Connibear charged with assault upon Bertie Mar-tin, were subjected to another remand for one week, bail being granted. Judge Houston remarked that the case would not be proceeded with until would not be proceeded with until such time as the injured lad had suf-ficiently recovered to give evidence. George W. Neely, alias Lowe, ca the serious charge of trying to drug a durse girl, was dismissed, having put in many oradentials of good character. in many credentials of good character. In dismissing him the magistrate gave him considerable wholesale advice.

Alexander Edmunds was charged with the non-support of his wife and child. The information was laid by Mr. Edmunds, but when the judge explained that a conviction in police court would probably mean peniten-tiary for the accused, the case was alowed to drop and the complainant will seek redress in the civic courts.

Frank Tinney, the jad charged with cutting Herbert Darr with a knife, was also given a hearing. He claimed that the injury was accidental and the judge, after hearing the evidence, agreed with him. The case was dis-
