THE RAILWAYS' VICTIMS.

Chicago's Heavy Sacrifice to the Tractor Lines—Many Fatalities Due to Overcrowding.

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—A record of 132 persons killed and 2,371 injured on the surface and elevated traction lines of Chicago since January 1 last gave impetus to the crusade against the overcrowding of cars which was begun by the officials of the city yesterday. The police, foot and mounted, will assume a measure of control over the operations of traction lines. Granting the expected "permissions" from the corporation counsel, the force under Chief Collins will from tonight undertake the task of preventing the overcrowding of all "L" trains and the blocking of surface cars. It is planned to place uniformed policemen on every station of the loop. Just how many passengers will be permitted on each car has not been decided, but the suggestion was made that not more than one and one-half times the seating capacity of each car should be acceptable as safe.

YOUNGEST ENGLISH MAYOR.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—The youngest mayor in England is said to be Henry Branston, mayor of Newark, brother of G. T. Branston, the cricketer.
He is only 25 years old. His grandfather was mayor of the borough in 1858, while his great-grandfather held the same position in 1814.

SAILORES IN KILTS.

PORTSMOUTH, Dec. 1.—Official recognition has been given to a couple of sailor pipers at Portsmouth naval barracks. They are Scotsmen, and on enlisting they brought their pipes with them. They have now been detailed out in kilts of the Royal Stuart tartan, tunics of the orthodox Scotch cut, and Glenurquhoy caps and cockades.

Half-Sick

When your nerves are weak, when you are easily tired, when you feel all run down, then is the time you need a good strong tonic—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Your doctor will tell you why it has such power over weak nerves, why it makes the blood rich, and why it gives courage and strength. Ask him if it is not just the medicine you need.

UNJUST REGULATIONS.

The injustice of certain regulations with regard to immigration, which are enforced by the United States government, was never more clearly shown than in two cases which have just arisen.

Henry Hirsbour, who for the past sixteen years has been an active business man in Waterbury, Conn., his wife and two children, who were originally sent there from Canada, returned to his former home in this country a few weeks ago for brief visit. He was taken ill while in Montreal, and it was thought best that he should be sent to his home in Waterbury. He was stopped at the border and compelled to remain in Canada without the attention which might be given by his wife and family. Several attempts were made to have him pass into the United States but these were unsuccessful as it was held that unless Mr. Hirsbour took out naturalization papers he could not be admitted to the United States. No alien who is not fit physically to assume the responsibilities of full citizenship is allowed in the land of the free, and although Mr. Hirsbour is in reality a United States citizen and has been one for a good part of his life he was not permitted to return to his home after a brief visit here. Naturalization papers have just been forwarded from Washington to Montreal, but it is stated that the worry and anxiety arising from this affair have so affected Mr. Hirsbour that his recovery is extremely doubtful and he will probably, even now that permission has been granted, never be able to return to his home.

As another instance of the same rather foolish regulations, dispatches from Upper Canada state that the British teachers who are being sent out to America by Mr. Alfred Mosely to study educational conditions in this country must pay a head tax before being admitted to the United States.
Inspector Hughes, of Toronto, has been endeavoring, but without much success, to oppose this demand on the part of the United States government.

Several parties of teachers coming from Toronto to Niagara have been held up at the latter port and compelled to pay the tax, even though they only wished to stay for a few hours in Niagara to see the falls.

CANADA'S FISHERIES.

It has often been stated that the wealth of the sea is far greater than that of the land, but very seldom are figures produced which accurately compare this fact. Some idea of the immense value of the Canadian fisheries is obtained from the annual report of the minister of marine and fisheries which has just been presented to parliament. From this it is found that the whole catch of fish in Canadian waters by Canadian fishermen during the year 1905 was almost as large as the total production of both coal and gold in the Dominion during the same period.

Roughly, the amount is $28,000,000. It was, throughout, a record breaking season and showed an increase of over $4,000,000 over the best previous year, 1901.

An interesting feature of the report is the statement that for the first time in the history of Canada, Nova Scotia has been compelled to take second place as the banner fish producing province.
British Columbia has stepped to the front, this latter province showing an increase of no less than $4,831,000 over last year.

Salmon, of course, are the most valuable fish of all, from a commercial standpoint, and the catch of this variety is estimated at $8,889,942. Lobsters, although rapidly disappearing, are second in the list and are still good for $3,906,988 to the men who catch them. Cod, the most common fish on the Atlantic coast, stand third, the valuation being $8,421,400. Herring are worth to the country $2,304,405 and following these come white fish, mackerel, sardines, haddock and pickerel in the order named, each having a commercial value of over three-quarters of a million dollars for the year.

On the Pacific coast, British Columbia hunters, during the year, secured fur seal skins to the value of $331,152. The different provinces stand in the following order in the value of their fisheries:

British Columbia, . . . $9,880,216 Nova Scotia, . . . $2,304,405 New Brunswick, . . . $2,304,405 Quebec, . . . $2,304,405 Ontario, . . . $1,708,963 Prince Edward Island, . . . $89,922 Saskatchewan, . . . $121,570 The value of the fishery in the only province which shows a decrease as compared with previous years is of interest to note that from the year 1903 to 1905, inclusive, the five principal varieties of fish have yielded the following values:

Cod, . . . $19,045,567
Salmon, . . . 9,033,459 Lobsters, . . . 7,988,626 Herring, . . . 7,265,589 Mackerel, . . . 46,047,244

During the fiscal year 1905, the fish and fish products, including marine animals, exported from Canada to foreign countries, chiefly to the United States and Great Britain, amounted to $14,000,000, being an increase of over five million dollars over the previous year.

The man who is always planning for a competence in his old age usually thinks of the sea, too late to enjoy it old enough to begin to enjoy it. Saving doesn't mean starvation today that you may starve tomorrow. Lord Lorton's blind girl, Nydia, in the Last Days of Pompeii, although hopelessly imprudent, took the best possible care of herself and ate her prison food conscientiously that she might be strong to avail herself of any possible chance of escape that might come to her. Keep yourself in the best possible physical and mental condition, alert and ready. Whoever heard of Stanley until Bennett commissioned him to go to Africa and find Livingston? And who would ever have heard of him if he hadn't been ready with a body as strong as his mind? And in Africa he not only found Livingston, but he also discovered rubber groves that made him rich. Why weary the body and kill the mind by a lifetime of hardness, for the sake of a mere saving, that you may have a mere competence at the end, too late to enjoy it?
By caring for both body and mind, keeping the body strong and the mind clear and alert you will be able to appreciate and grasp opportunities for using your small savings in a way which will bring you the means for enjoyment in old age.

NO LAST WORDS.
Rear Admiral Cochrane, commandant of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, whose reputation as a sailor of good stories has increased each time he has spoken at a dinner, told a story a few nights ago which was given to illustrate his dislike for being the last speaker.

"Having the last word," the rear-admiral said, "reminds me of a story I heard not long ago.

"A certain man, a doctor, and a clergyman were engaged to enter an eulogy.
This worthy minister prepared a sermon of eulogy length and strength, but just before he entered the pulpit to deliver it he thought that it might be advisable to learn what the doctor's last words had been. So he turned to one of the weeping younger sons and asked:

"My boy, you tell me your father's last words?"
"He didn't have none," the boy replied. "Ma was with him to the end."

A DISTINCT ADVANTAGE.
Next to a big black cigar and billiards, books are Mark Twain's chief diversion. Aside from the pleasure he gets out of them, the humorist has discovered that they possess an unusual trait.

"My books are my best friends," said the bookseller Mark Twain, "and a summer home near Elmira, N. Y., as his eyes swept row after row of attractive volumes, he said to himself: 'What can I shut them up?'—December Lippincott's.

A CAPITALIST.
A Washington sociologist who has been examining into the condition of the children of the poor writes in the South that a story of how they are employed in the mills. In Statesboro, N. C., he got talking with a hale and hearty looking citizen, who sat on a dry goods box whittling a stick. "What do you do for a living?" asked the sociologist. "Wall, stranger," accommodatingly replied the hospital tourist.
"I don't have to do nothin' for a livin'— these days, seel' as how I have five head of a-wor-kin' in the cotton factory."

SUICIDE IN EUROPE.
The Civita Catholicas draws a distressing and melancholy picture of the suicide epidemic in Europe. The faithful figures are calculated to establish that in the Protestant countries suicides are more numerous than in the others. While in Spain and Ireland a decrease is noticed, Denmark and Prussia show an increase. Within the last thirty years not less than a million suicides have been committed in Europe, and in this total Germany alone figures with 300,000.

THE REASON WHY.
Recently a hapless young woman from a backwoods county in Virginia went to a local store carrying three chickens. She inquired the price of chickens, and at the same time put them on the counter.

"Will they lay there?" asked the clerk, who did not know the chickens were tied.

She bit her handkerchief in embarrassment a moment, and said:
"No, sir; they are roosters."

ROOSEVELT MADE A

HIT IN PANAMA

His Free and Easy Way Captured the People.

He Learned Lots About the Canal—Enthusiasm Developed Among Those Engaged in the Work.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—President Roosevelt took the Panama train to Suriname, adjusting the tax-man of the Panama canal commission, who arrived today from Colon. Mr.
Shonts enthusiastically believed in the President's visit. The visit of the chief executive and declared that work on the canal was progressing under satisfactory conditions. During his talk with the newspaper men, Mr. Shonts took occasion to work having been given carte blanche.
Discussing the President's visit Chairman Shonts said:

"President Roosevelt simply took the people of Panama by storm. The setting aside of all precedents by the President in his visit to Panama was the instant admiration and respect of the people of the Panama Republic.
Mr. Roosevelt was familiar with the work theoretically and saw and understood more during his short stay than the average man would in several months."

"The building of the canal is to President Roosevelt as the building of a future home would be to any other man. He looks at it as his own personal work, and he has given it his own personal touch."

"During the President's trip through the canal zone one of the leading citizens asked Mr. Roosevelt what he thought of the criticism as written by Faulkner Bigelow. The President answered: 'Small people like small flies despise large things and large enterprises.'"

"In the President's speech at Colon the thing that won the hearts of the canal workers and the people was his statement: 'The men who are now working on the canal and the citizens of Panama who are assisting them are going down to posterity like the veterans of the civil war. When this great work is completed the men who have been instrumental in its success will look backward and say: 'It was part of it' as do the veterans of the civil war when they look with pride at the great united nation."

"This more to endorse the President and the United States in general to the people than anything else he could have said."

Mr. Shonts said that the reports of labor troubles in the canal zone were absolutely untrue. He said:

"The work on the canal was never in a better condition. The men are confident and the work is going ahead very fast."

RATS HAVE DEBAUCH.
Knew Hole in Beer Duct to Get Gloriously Drunk.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—A search to ascertain the cause of a leakage in the beer cellar of a restaurant in Birmingham revealed that rats had gnawed a hole in the wall of the cellar. The rats were found in the cellar, and the cause of the leakage was traced to a hole in the wall. The rats were found in the BRIEF DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The personal estate left by Carl Schurz, according to the report filed by the appraiser in New York, was valued at $255,105. The property consists largely of railroad stocks. Mr. Schurz was left New York real estate.

DEXTER, Maine, Dec. 2.—While engaged in rearing his pig, the taxpayer, a prominent farmer of Garland, was slowly crushed to death by falling beneath the building. His assistants were unable to get him out, and he remained there until he was found dead. One hundred and seventy men were engaged to remove the body.

CHRONIC, Dec. 2.—Six hundred and eighty-three sailors concerned in the mutiny here of last summer, have been sentenced by court martial to imprisonment, or service with the disciplinary battalions, for various pe-nals. One hundred and seventy sailors were acquitted.

NAPLES, Dec. 2.—What would appear to be a most important archaeological discovery has been made at Formosa, near which place Cicero was assassinated nearly twenty centuries ago. This discovery consists of remains which are thought to be the tomb of the great orator. They stand on a hill dominating both the Apennine and Herculean ways.

ROME, Dec. 2.—The State Railroad Department has received orders to reconstruct the Pope's railroad carriage.
This car has not been used since 1870.
It is a special carriage with gilded angles at the four corners. Inside there is a portable altar, and the upholsterings are of white velvet. This news is commented upon with much interest, and people are wondering if it means that the Pope is about to leave the Vatican.

CITIZENSHIP, Pa., Dec. 1.—A Baltimore and Ohio Passenger train is reported wrecked at Robbins Station, 10 miles east of McKeesport, Pa. Several doctors have been sent to the wreck on a special from McKeesport. No details are obtainable as yet. It is said that the train wrecked was through train No. 10, from the west for New York. It left this city at 2:30 p. m., and was due in New York at 12:35 p.
m. tomorrow.

UNEMPLOYED AS
FRUIT GROWERS.
LONDON, Dec. 1.—The Central Unemployed body for London was informed yesterday by the Working Colonies Committee that thirteen employment opportunities had been secured.

six first prizes, one second prize and four third prizes.

PARTICULAR PAUPERS.
LONDON, Dec. 2.—Nine paupers from Newton Abbot Workhouse were charged yesterday at Newton Abbot with insubordination. They refused to eat their dinner because it was served a few minutes late, and subsequently they refused to work. Two of them were discharged, and the other seven days.

What a Blow

There's a great big hub-bub, nogoing on and lots of printer's ink being used in blowing about Shoes. One dealer swears his to be the best, the other his, and so with the third. They're all good. We know it, and so do you. But our shoes for men, women and children are as good as any in the world and better than many. One thing, however, in favor ours is that there's a certain style about them that you won't find in all shoes. It's because of their style and their easy and perfect fit that they've won their reputation. All leathers and lasts.

Then there's another point in our favor—it's our prices. Always a little lower you will notice than the other fellow's on the same grade.
WE think this is THE SHOE STORE after all. Come, see what YOU think.

There's A Reason

Why we sell so many men their footwear. It's because we do it reasonably and well—better than it can be done elsewhere.

Just now we're showing a Man's Box Calf Bal, leather-lined throughout, and Goodyear Welted soles at $3.00 per pair.

Another special line is our Box Calf Blucher, leather lined and Goodyear welted soles at $3.75.

We have just opened another lot of those Box Calf Bluchers and Bals, at $2.25 and $2.50 per pair. They're made of good quality calf and have extra heavy soles.

It will pay you to invest in shoe leather if you buy at SANBORN'S SHOE STORE, 339 Main St.

Our Perfumes

For Xmas trade are the nicest we have ever shown. The first thing we look for in buying is quality and we buy the best in each class.
Then they must be put up so that the container is valued after the

ANOTHER REVOLUTION

PROMISED IN TURKEY—CAUGHT AFTER BLOODY FIGHT Campaign Matter Being Distributed—Demands the Overthrow of Despotism Government

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 2.—A number of revolutionary manifestos attributable to the Young Turk movement, the latest being circulated clandestinely, both here and in the provinces. One of these, distributed by an organization style itself the Ottoman Liberal Committee, advocates in moderate, but explicit language, the re-establishment of the constitution of 1876 in revision, rendering some of its provisions more applicable to the needs of the country and invites the Ottomans to unite for the accomplishment of this object instead of, by working in different directions, enabling the despotic government to neutralize their efforts. It declares that the new sovereign must pledge himself to introduce the constitution of 1876, in return for which the nation shall respect the rights of the imperial dynasty, especially the mode of succession to the throne established by centuries. The revised constitution, it is added, should rely on the ancient principles, including the respect due to the sovereign's prerogatives, equality and liberty of an equal degree for all Ottomans and a large degree of decentralization in the provinces.

Another pamphlet, purporting to announce from the same source, invites the inhabitants of the Empire without distinction to combine against the "savage oppression of those under the yoke of the Sultan, and says that the despotic government must be overthrown and law and justice be established.

The manifestos are considered indicative of the feeling of general discontent prevailing throughout the Turkish Empire.

PHILADELPHIA JEWS

HONOR JOHN HAY
A Memorial to Him as One Who Tempered Statecraft With the Golden Rule

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 2.—Lauded as a diplomat who tempered statecraft with the golden rule, the late John Hay was honored by the Jewish people of this city today, when a handsome memorial window to the dead secretary of state was unveiled at Keneseth Israel Temple.

Attended by secretary of state, Elihu Root, Oscar Straus, recently named by President Roosevelt as secretary of commerce and labor, and Andrew D. White, ex-Minister of Russia and Germany together with six members of the Hay family, the exercises were
