

GRATITUDE PROMPTED THIS LETTER

Prominent People Proud To Testify For "Fruit-Lives"

Mr. Timothy McGrath,
130 Atlantic Ave., Montreal,
March 1st, 1912.

"For years, I suffered from Rheumatism, being unable to work for weeks at a time and spending hundreds of dollars on doctor's medicines, but after receiving treatment at Notre Dame Hospital, where I was informed that I was incurable, I was discouraged when a friend advised me to try 'Fruit-Lives.' After using three packages, I felt relieved and continued until I had used five packages when a complete cure was the result. After years of doctoring failed, I consider 'Fruit-Lives' a wonderful remedy. You are at liberty to use this testimonial to prove to others the good that 'Fruit-Lives' has done me."

TIMOTHY McGRATH,

Brought much nearer to mind by the photographs shown, they being taken recently by himself during his residence there. It was all interesting and wonderful and one can well understand that only those who live can write or talk of it. A glowing personal tribute to that wonderful body of men, the Mounted Police, a kindly eulogy of King George brought to a close an address that was accorded very hearty applause. A vote of thanks was then moved and seconded by Mr. A. Lafin, and decorated with beautiful flowers given by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Genong, the ministers and the school committee. The refreshments were served by a group of dainty young ladies, a part of whom earlier in the evening acted as ushers. The address was given by Mrs. G. T. Dawson, Mrs. Franklin Eaton and Miss Mer-Edmond. The two duets by Mrs. Eaton and Miss Clark brought rounds of applause. God Save the King, played by Mrs. G. J. Clarke and sung by the audience, ended a most delightful evening.

Beauty Answers

E. MARTYN.

Flo: Yes dear, smiling makes crows' feet as easily as worry, but don't stop smiling. Only by smiling and frowning and eye-troubles also may be lessened. You can quickly remove wrinkles and keep the face velvety and smooth at very little cost by making a home and using regularly the face cream, which does not grow hair. Get from your druggist a bottle of the cream and use it in half-pint of cold water or witch hazel, adding 2 teaspoonfuls of glycerine. Stir and let stand one day. Apply to wrinkled surface and leave through night, then wash off and use the cream as a massage. This treatment will remove wrinkles and prevent the most obstinate wrinkles or fine lines of the face, while softening the skin to a velvety texture.

Elise: Neither you nor your husband will be embarrassed by dandruff settling on your shoulders if you follow these simple directions: Brush the hair and apply a quinine hair-tonic, made by dissolving 1 ounce of quinine in 1 1/2 pint of alcohol and adding 1/2 pint of cold water. Apply once a week. This tonic removes dandruff, stops falling hair and keeps the scalp in a healthy condition, promoting the growth of hair and making it glossy and abundant.

Katherine: Do not be alarmed because you have become fleshy. Most of a gain weight in winter. To make an ever-falling flesh-reducer, get from your druggist 4 ounces of paraffin, dissolve it in 1 1/2 pints hot water. Take tablespoonful 3 times a day just before meals.

Allie: Your drowsy, tired worn-out feeling, which most of us have at the approach of warm weather, comes from being poisoned by impurities in the blood which generally lead to sickness or poor health. At the first signs of spring get a good blood-purifying tonic should be taken by every member of the family. The expense of making such a tonic will be small if one gets from the druggist 1/2 pint alcohol and 1 ounce karoene, then mix these with 1/2 cupful of sugar, adding hot water to make quart. A tablespoonful taken before meals will soon clear the blood of all impurities, banish pimples and sallowness and restore lost appetite and energy. No known remedy is so strengthening and energizing to a tired, worn-out system as this old-fashioned blood-purifier. It is one of the best health-restorers known to medical science.

Corinne: A brisk walk in the fresh air will do a common headache lots of good.

CHATHAM

Chatham, May 21.—The Malediction was presented in the Opera House, Monday night, by the college boys and proved a great success. The boys deserve much credit for the able manner in which they handled their parts. The play was the heaviest that has been undertaken by amateurs in this town, and the way the boys managed their parts would have done credit to professionals.

Arthur Allen who took the leading role, that of Don Alonso, son of Don Vasco De Gomez, never showed to better effect. The part was a hard one, and the way in which Mr. Allen enacted it would have won plaudits for one of much more experience.

No less deserving of credit is Ralph McInerney, who took the part of Don Alonso's father. Mr. McInerney is just a beginner but he showed great ability in his part, which was one of the hardest in the play.

Rev. and Mrs. D. Henderson, Rev
