OUR OLD FRIENDS, W.A.A.C.'s, STILL IN BUSINESS.—No Christmas time that is on record was ever celebrated in Britain with so much real festive spirit as that of 1918. For the first time four years family and friendly reunions took place without fear of terrible partings in immediate prospect. Boys and girls "on leave" were the centre of countless home gatherings. The photograph shows land girls arriving home for the holiday in London.

SKATE JUICE

By Dan

"A good team in condition beat a better team not in condition," said Manager Harry Wismer in summing up the game against Newman Hall in Toronto on Saturday night.

"They beat us 6 to 2 and celebrated, but our turn is coming, and when we meet them again if we don't reverse the score, I'll eat my hockey stick," said one of the players.

In the first period the Champs broke through the La Flamme Woodcock defense five times, but through being over anxious failed to register.

In the second and third frame condition told its tale, and our boys began to fade.

Had there been ice at the local rink so that the team could practice the Newman would have had less chance than the proverbial snowball.

"Shooter" was the star for the Champs, and started many brilliant rushes. Once he went through and registered. Hilber, a few minutes later, added the other tally for the Champs.

George Hainsworth played a great game and handled the Newman's barrage in the second and third periods in a manner that aroused the admiration even of the Toronto fans.

On Wednesday night the Champs met the Saint Patricks in Toronto, and the Saints are due for the surprise of their lives for they are due for a defeat.

The boys stopped over in Toronto for a practice yesterday, and to-day between 11 o'clock and noon they were out on the local ice.

Arrangements have been made for a G.P.&H. car to meet the C.P.R. train from Toronto at Galt to bring the fans home after the game Wednesday night. No doubt this convenience will be taken advantage of by several hundred fans who will go to Toronto to encourage the boys in the big battle.

With his visit to Brantford yesterday "Knotty" Lee has completed his trip in Western Ontario in the interests of the Canadian League. He finds everywhere enthusiastic for baseball wherever he visits. His opinion is that the game was never so certain of success on an organized basis in Brantford, Hamilton, Guelph, London, Kitchener, St. Thomas and elsewhere as this year.

HE IS NOT WELCOME
Few spectators will congratulate Jess Willard on getting $100,000 win, lose or draw, in his July bout for the championship. Willard refused to box for the United States soldiers, for the Salvation Army fund, for the Red Cross or for the sportsmen's contribution to the United War Work Campaign.

Kitchener Lose To Newman Hall 6-2

TORONTO OPINION OF THE GAME

Newman Hall sprang a great surprise when they defeated Kitchener on Saturday night by the score of 6 to 2. After their showing against St. Patrick's it was freely predicted that Brennan's team would make the Allan Cup holders hustle, but it is doubtful if any of their supporters expected them to win so easily. Led by Jerry Laflamme, the garnet and grey carried the attack to their opponents from the outset and showed a marked superiority that was nothing short of remarkable. The winners still have a chance to win the group honors, and they will prove a hard team to defeat in all future contests. The game, which attracted a crowd of nearly 5,000 spectators, proved decidedly interesting. Kitchener, it is true, did not play up to form, and were unable to keep up with the terrific pace set by their opponents. In the initial period they made their strongest bid, but thereafter the locals clearly outplayed them. Newman Hall have shown wonderful improvement in the past few weeks, and they are now a formidable aggregation. The acquisition of Kilpatrick has materially strengthened them in centre line.

Jerry Laflamme was the outstanding star on Saturday night. It is safe to say that never since the days when St. Michael's were in their prime has the veteran shown to such good advantage. He checked, and blocked in telling style and his rushes were irresistible. Laflamme scored two goals, assisted in another couple and only ill-fortune robbed him of several more. He was given a great hand by the crowd.

Ingoldby Plays Well
Ingoldby of last season's De la Salle juniors, was also prominent. He played his position well and was always on hand to take a pass. He worried Hainsworth with his bullet-like shots, and in the final period scored two well-earned goals. Dopy also showed good form, and his clever work when on the offensive proved an effective factor in his team's success. Woodcock, Kilpatrick and Collett turned in useful games, the last named making many spectacular saves.

Both teams had two substitutes in uniform, but very seldom used them. Merrick and Masters were on the Kitchener bench, but the latter was not used at any stage. Merrick started on the defence and played clever hockey while he was on, but for some unexplained reason he was kept in reserve in the final period when his services were most needed. Kitchener at no time showed the grand form that carried them through to the top last season. All of the players, with the exception of Trushinski, tired badly and in the final period Parkes in particular, appeared on the verge of collapse. When Karges was given a penalty near the close of the contest, Parkes left the ice voluntarily and sent Merrick in to replace him, but his respite was short-lived, because when Karges returned the leg-weary Kitchener captain came on again.

Hiller made many determined efforts to get his team making going, but without success. The erstwhile Kitchener star was closely checked all evening, and was unable to bulge the twice behind Collett. Trushinski stood up well under the fast pace, and played the most useful game for the visitors. His work both offensively and defensively, was up to the mark and he never gave up trying from beginning to end.

Karges is Clever Stick-Handler
Karges did some clever stick-handling, but his failure to pass the puck cost his team many opportunities to tally. Hillman has been to much better advantage. In the initial period he attempted to body-check Woodcock and as a result got a bad toss which did not help him any.

Play was very even in the first ten minutes with both teams having several opportunities to tally. Newman Hall forced the play for the balance of the period and the Kitchener players began to show signs of distress. However, good work by Hainsworth prevented the locals from scoring.

Newman Hall out on a terrific pace in the second session. On an end-to-end rush Laflamme scored the first goal of the match. Five minutes later he went down again and passed to Dopy, and the latter drove the disc past Hainsworth. The applause that greeted this achievement had hardly subsided when Woodcock added another, making the score at the end of the second period 3 to 0 in favor of Newman Hall.

Newman Hall continued their good work in the concluding session and outscored the Allan Cup holders 3 to 2. Laflamme and Ingoldby tallied for Newman Hall, while Trushinski and Hillman did the trick for the losers. The line-up:

WARM PRAISE FOR THE ARMY

Returned Soldiers in Hospital as Salvationists Were Ever Ready To Help
Testimony as to the good work the Salvation Army is doing for returned soldiers and has done for the men at the front was given recently by a number of patients in the military ward of the Toronto General Hospital who are still suffering from the effects of wounds.

One of the military police who has been doing duty in Toronto since 1916 is John Thornton of the 19th Battalion. "I always direct the boys to the Salvation Army Hotel," he says, "because I know that the Salvationists would put them up if they didn't have a cent and very often they didn't. I know the Salvation Army has done a great deal for our returned boys. In England if a chap had only sixpence he could go into an Army hotel or hut and get fried eggs and coffee."

Lance-Corporal John Booth of the 20th Battalion has been home since June 1916. Speaking of the service rendered by the Salvation Army in England he says that frequently at West Sandling Camp he got two eggs with bacon, bread and butter tea and pie for ninepence. At any of the regular eating houses at Hythe nearby the price was two and sixpence and if you went in and did not have the price the Army would tell you that you could pay when you did. It was wonderful he said what the Army did for the boys in the front line—free socks, free coffee and many little extras were always being handed out and it was good to see the Salvationists.

Private J. Wenys who went over seas with the 124th Battalion states that the Salvation Army is doing wonderful work among the boys in the various hospitals. Private Wenys is suffering from a lame foot the result of a wound received at the front. He says the Salvation Army places a luncheon at the disposal of the soldiers in the General Hospital and this act is very much appreciated. He describes the work of Captain McElheney (Chaplain) who is a Salvationist as "Great."

Gunner S. Heller of the R.C.H.A. who returned to Canada on Nov. 23rd, and is a patient in the military ward of the General Hospital relates that when in France for six or seven months he had received no mail from home. A telegram making various efforts he finally went to the Salvation Army Chaplain at Etaples who sent a cable to the Army in Toronto and in a very short time a return cable was received giving full information. The Army would not accept a cent for this service and a follow-up letter from Commissioner Richards himself giving further particulars came in due course. Heller who is a Jew is warm in his praise of the Salvation Army in France. "I have seen fellows go to the Salvation Army hotel when they were broke and they would be always cheerfully received and given whatever they needed."

without money." The Army in his opinion did more effective work than any other organization with the troops. When at LeHarve Heller saw Captain Steele, Salvation Army Chaplain take a fellow who had lost his kit and completely fit him out without cost. At army stores this kit would have cost him "some" money.
