STRAY SHOTS

"The floor is very slippery," she remarked, when he asked her for a dance. "Do you think you could ho'd me if I should chance to fall?"

"I—I guess so," he faltered, dismayed at the idea; then the light broke forth. "Come out on the piazza," he whispered, "and I can practise for awhile."

Visitor (with a gun)—Is there any small game around here?

Resident—How would a twenty-five-cent limit strike you?

She—You will ask papa, will you not; or must I?

He—Oh, I have seen him; fact is, he made the suggestion that it was about time for me to propose.

"Have you heard the news about Miller?"

"No; what is it?"

"He was in a boat on the Arm. He fell overboard and was drowned. The water was too deep."

"Didn't he know how to swim?"

"Swim! Don't you know that all persons are forbidden by the police to swim on the Arm."

"I've got a new job," remarked Georgie Gazzam to his Sunday school teacher. "It's in a real estate office." "Is your employer a Christian, Georgie?" "He's a real estate agent, sir. I said that at first."

A man named Stratton, who tried to fast for forty days in a New York dime museum, did fast forty days, and then they buried him because he died. His fast will be continued indefinitely.

A shrewd old lady cautioned her daughter against worrying her husband too much, and concluded by saying: "My child, a man is like an egg. Keep him in hot water a little while, he may boil soft; but keep him there too long and he hardens."

A lady from up river is now in New Westminster with the view of entering suit for a divorce from her husband. The grounds are desertion, failing to provide for her, and a still more serious charge. If the case comes before the court on the charges alleged, it will be the second of the kind ever tried in Canada.
