

Order, 1896. He had been previously awarded the medal of the Royal Humane Soc. for an act of bravery in Africa. In 1896 he exchanged into the Suffolk Regt., and retired from the Imp. service, 1897. — "Thornhill," Quebec.

CAMPBELL, Rev. Robert (Presb.), was born in the Tp. of Drummond, Lanark, Ont., June 21, 1835, and is the s. of Peter Campbell, who came to Can. from Scot., 1817. Ed. at the local sch. and at Queen's Univ., Kingston (B.A., 1856; M.A., 1858; D.D., 1887), he was for a time Head Master of Queen's Coll. Preparatory Sch. — Ordained 1861, he was apptd. min. of St. Andrew's Cong., Galt, Ont., and after 5 yrs., was called to old St. Gabriel's Ch., Montreal. He was the last pastor of this the oldest Presb. Cong. in Can., and was the first pastor of the new St. Gabriel's Ch., in St. Catherine St., same city, which was opened for divine service, Sept., 1886, and has continued to fill the pastorate there up to the present time. Dr. C. is also a trustee of Queen's Univ., and Chairman of the Ministers' Widows' and Orphans' Fund. Much of his time has been given to literary work. He was joint ed. of The Presbyterian, 1867-70, and, in the latter year, took the prize for the best essay on the subject of the Presb. Union in Can. In 1887 he published the "History of St. Gabriel St. Church, Montreal," a volume displaying much historical research. He was Presdt. of the Natural His. Soc., Montreal, 1895. He m. Dec., 1863, Margt., dau. of the late Rev. Geo. Macdonnell, and sister of the late Rev. D. J. Macdonnell, B.D., Toronto, whose life she has written (1897). — St. Famille St., Montreal.

CAMPBELL, Rt. Rev. Thomas W. (Ref. Ep. Ch.) is the s. of Rev. Thos. Campbell (Meth.), by his wife, Harriet C., dau. of Geo. Burrell, of Quebec. B. at Three Rivers, P.Q., he was ed. at Victoria Univ., and ordained in the Meth. Ch., June, 1879. For the next 2 yrs. he was associate ed. of the Christian Guardian, a position he left to become pastor of the Woodgreen Ch. It was while he was minister of the Parkdale Meth. Ch., 1885, that after a severe course of study, he joined the Reformed Epis. Ch. He at once took charge of Christ Ch., Toronto, the attendance at which increased from 30 to ten times as many. In 1891 he was elected to the Episcopate, and consecrated at Cleveland, May 31. In June, 1894, he presided at the 14th Genl. Council of the Ref. Ep. Ch., held at Chicago, and in Jan., 1895, he received and accepted a call to the Ch. of the Reconciliation, Brooklyn, N.Y. He established and ed. Acta Victoriana, at Victoria Coll., 1878; later, he ed. The Can. Prohibitionist; and in 1894, he published and ed. The Prot. Churchman, the official organ of the Ref. Ep. Ch. in Can. and Nfld. He resigned the Bishopric, and was succeeded by Bp. Fallows, June, 1897. He m., Nov., 1879, Sarah A., dau. of the Rev. Hilton Cheesbrough, Supdt. of West. missions in the Bahamas. — Nostrand Ave., Brooklyn, N.Y.

CAMPBELL, William Wilfred, poet, is the s. of the Rev. Thos. Campbell (Ch. of Eng.), by his wife, Matilda Frances Wright, and was b. at Berlin, Ont., June 1, 1861. Ed. at the Univ. of Toronto and at Cambridge, Mass., he was ordained to the Ch. of Eng. ministry, 1885, by the Bp. of New Hampshire, and soon afterwards undertook the toils of a parish in New Eng. Returning to Can., 1888, he became Rector of St. Stephen, N.B. In 1891 he retired from the Ch., and removed to Ottawa, where he secured a position in the C. S. Though the literary spirit was strong in him at an early age, he had none of the advantages necessary to develop genius. He began to write short poems in a village paper, after which he became a contributor to the Atlantic Monthly, the Century, and Harper's Mag. It was not until after his ordination that his poems on the lake region, which have earned for him the title