

2. On the first day of April a list shall be made of all the prisoners whose sentences have expired during the five preceding months, and who may be still in prison, according to the dates when their sentences expired; and according to such order they shall be discharged, one convict on the said first day of April, and one on every day thereafter, until the whole shall have been discharged: Order of discharge of convicts in April.

3. Whenever the term of any prisoner's sentence expires on a Sunday, he shall be discharged on the Saturday preceding, unless he desires to remain until the Monday following: Sentence expiring on Sunday.

4. Every convict under sentence for life or for not less than two years, upon his discharge, either by expiration of sentence, or otherwise, shall be furnished, at the expense of the penitentiary, with a suit of clothing other than prison clothing, and with such sum of money as shall be sufficient to pay his travelling expenses to the place at which he received his sentence, and such other sum in addition, not exceeding twenty dollars, as the Warden may deem proper: should any sum remain at his credit for earnings for over-work, such sum shall be paid to him at such times, and in such amounts, as the prison rules may direct. Clothing and money to convicts discharged. Money for over-work.

PRISONERS' EFFECTS.

45. Every article found upon the person of a convict at the time of his reception into the penitentiary, which may be considered worthy of preservation, shall be taken from him and a description thereof entered in a book to be kept for that purpose; and if the convict does not see fit otherwise to dispose of it at the time, it shall be carefully put away until the day of his discharge, when it shall be delivered up to him again in the state in which it may then be; but the Warden shall not be liable for any deterioration which may have taken place in such article in the interval. If at the time of his reception the convict desires to dispose of any such article and it is so disposed of, a memorandum of the fact shall be noted in the said book, and signed by the proper officer having charge of the said book, and also by the convict; and any money received therefor shall be placed to his credit. Articles found on convict on entry to be kept for him. If he desires to dispose of any.
