

Art is not always in the eye of the beholder . . . sometimes it makes its way into the Gazette.

November 29 The Gazette will be publishing a special Arts and Expression supplement consisting of photographs, drawings, poetry, short fiction and cartoons. All those interested in submitting material for the edition should have their work brought into our offices by Thursday, November 22. The work should include the author's name, address and telephone number, and all originals will be returned after publication.
