Peter Pan thrills Thorpe audience

Several hundred youngsters who jammed into the aisles and crowded into the orchestra pit of Burnhamthorpe Collegiate Auditorium last Saturday afternoon oh-ed and ah-ed their appreciation of Peter Pan and his crew of merry-makers.

In a production undertaken by Norah Petrie and her daughter, Maureen, of Erindale Woodlands, lively amateur actors and actresses re-created the magic of the Never-never Land for a capacity audience in Etobicoke.

The Etobicoke Children's Players, amateur group that they were, showed their talent by keeping a highly volatile, excitable and easily distracted audience captivated through the 2 1/4 hour production.

And such is the nature of TV-trained, blasé children that Tinker Bell's light nearly went out. Asked if they believe in fairies, the audience shouted a cynical "No," until quick-witted Peter Pan had them clap to bring back Tinker Bell's health.

Peter Pan plays out its classic story twice more: Friday night at 7:30 p.m. and Saturday afternoon at 2:15 p.m.
